Fog, Cattle Cause Double Accident Last Wednesday

Dense fog and cattle on the road were the apparent combination of causes for a double accident on the Sand Flat road early last Wednesday.

Earl L. Simpson, RD 3, Deer Park, in a dump truck, traveling south not far from the Pergin Farm road rounded a curve and noted two cows of John Wilt on the roadway. Simpson applied his brakes but was unable to stop, and hit the cows.

Following Simpson was Alice L. Filsinger, RD 4 Deer Park. Simpson was stopped after hitting the cows. Alice Filsinger swerved to avoid several cows in the road and ran into the rear to the Simpson truck.

Conditions were foggy and visibility poor according to Trooper J. L. Foley who investigated.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Randall Eugene Lowdermilk, August 14, 1957
Though on earth you are no more,
Still in memory you are with us
As you always were before.
It broke our heart to lose you
But there is a promise of greater joy,
For God has planned for you a richer life,
Beyond the unseen shore.

Congressman Goodloe Byron
Maryland—Sixth District

This regular column serves as another vehicle to keep in touch with all segments of my constituency. It is an open invitation for you to question me on issues, let me assist you with your problems, request information or comment on whatever happens to be on your mind. Letters should be sent to me, c o U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. 20515. While space is obviously limited for printing all replies, I shall make every effort to answer each person who contacts me.

The following questions were typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks;

Please explain the Educational Opportunity Grant Program—someone told me my son may be eligible for financial help under this program?

You are probably referring to the Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant Program which is for students of exceptional financial need, who without the grant, would be unable to continue their education. Your son may be eligible to apply if he is enrolled at least half-time as an undergraduate or vocational student in an educational institution participating in the program. Detailed information may be obtained by writing the Maryland Higher Education Loan Corporation, 2100 Guilford Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland 21218.

Does President Ford have any congressional authority to ensure that Turkey will implement strong controls to prevent the flow of heroin to the U. S.?

Under the Foreign Assistance Act Amendments of 1971 the President may suspend all assistance to Turkey.

Why did you support legislation requiring a set percentage of petroleum imports to be carried on U. S. flagships?

I believe this cargo preference legislation for oil would help protect national security, increase employment in the maritime industry, safeguard the marine environment and help redress the U. S. balance of payments problem.

Does the government publish any literature on bicycle safety?

The Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) has published a free fact sheet on selection uses and maintenance of bicycles. For a copy, write to: Bicycle Safety, CPSC, Washington, D. C. 20207, or phone the agency's toll free number (800) 638-2666.

I recently read that the government has approved money for the construction of bicycle paths in Maryland. Is this true?

About a month ago the U.S. Department of Transportation approved $24 million in Federal-aid highway funds for the construction of bicycle and pedestrian facilities in the U.S. Approximately $2 million was earmarked for the State of Maryland.

What ever happened to the funds set aside for the Rural Development Act — funds that were authorized by Congsess last October?

Last October Congress authorized $260 million for the development of rural America. According to the Agriculture Department these funds have been allocated to achieve the three major goals established by the legislation: (1) $200 million in guaranteed loans to encourage jobs by promoting the establishment of business and industry in small towns and rural areas; (2) $10 million in grants to assist municipalities in attracting industry, and (3) $50 million in loans for community facilities that would improve rural life.

Capitol Comment

Agreement on Veterans Benefits

House and Senate conferees have agreed on legislation that would provide a substantial increase in educational benefits to more than two million Vietnam veterans. As a long-time advocate of improved benefits for veterans, I am pleased by this action, although the compromise does not include everything I sought.

As it stands now, the Vietnam-era veterans bill provides a 25 per cent increase in educational allowances. This means a single veteran would receive $270-a-month, which is $50 more than he is receiving now, to cover the cost of his tuition, fees and living expenses.

I sponsored a program to provide direct tuition grants to veterans. The Senate approved this item, but the conferees removed it from the legislation, replacing it with a direct low-cost Federal loan program providing up to $1000 in a school year.

The new legislation, which would apply to veterans entering school this fall, also increases the number of years a veteran may attend school under the G.I. Bill. He would be entitled to 15 months of educational benefits, which is the equivalent of five full school years. At present, the limit for benefits is 36 months.

The bill contains a number of other features. It strengthens various programs to reach educationally disadvantaged veterans, and toughens controls over abuses by schools that use deceptive advertising and sales techniques.

Overall, the legislation goes a long way toward providing the kinds of programs to our Vietnam veterans that were available to those of us who served earlier in the armed forces. Moreover, our Vietnam veterans have earned these benefits, and are entitled to them.

Veterans organizations, including the American Legion, and its National Commander, Robert Eaton, a Marylander, worked hard to gain these improvements. I was pleased to work with them, and shall continue to do so in the future.

Your views on the subject of this week's column are valued. Please write me at 460 Russell Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510.

Maryland Called "Big Tree State"

The Forest Service, Department of Natural Resources, notes that Maryland has been called "The Big Tree State," for its number of historic champion trees.

The state's celebration of the nation's bicentennial will feature these living monuments to the state's history.

Heritage trees, which abound in Maryland, may provide a backdrop to the events surrounding the nation's founding in 1776.

Tree Hall of Fame programs, to identify, preserve, mark and honor trees that are at least 200 years old, are to be planned as part of Maryland's bicentennial activities. The program will start in Anne Arundel county.

Maryland's unique geography supports a wide variety of tree species ranging from the cypress, red gum, pecan and southern pines characteristic of the deep south, to the oaks and poplars of the Piedmont, and the forests of white pine, spruce, hemlock, sugar maple and yellow birches in the Alleghenies.

Baltimore county, with 21 champion trees, leads the state list, Anne Arundel and Harford counties have 16 each, Talbot 15, Montgomery 12, Carroll 10, Queen Anne's, Baltimore city, Somerset and Prince George's 6 each; Cecil and Garrett five each, Washington and Howard 3, St. Mary's, and Kent, Worcester, Frederick, Caroline, Wicomico, Charles and Dorchester, one each.

VOLUME 98 | OAKLAND, GARRETT COUNTY, MD. AUGUST 29, 1974 | PER COPY 15c | NUMBER 26

Where Did It Go? . . .

We have reached the "I don't know where the summer went," season. Fall lies just around the corner. The unofficial demarcation line that most of us live by is Labor Day and the opening of school.

The two come so closely together that Labor Day which this year is on September 2, has become the traditional occasion for end of summer family outings.

Whether we realize it or not, we seem to have reached a millennium of sorts. How else can the endless stream of costly playthings — campers, boats, motors, scooters, and pullman-size vehicles — that will take to the road this coming Labor Day weekend be explained?

As far as material possessions go, no people have ever enjoyed abundance on such a mass scale. Labor Day is a fitting time to recall that it has been the unique combination of American labor and American capital that has made this abundance possible. The objective of youth that will be returning to school the day after Labor Day should be to learn how to live with the good things of life that have come from the efforts of previous generations. Great attention in the classrooms should be given to matters of the spirit, respect for persons and property, and obedience to the laws of the land.

Showers Of Last Two Days Help To Reduce Shortage

Tuesday's thunder storm and showers from yesterday afternoon through this morning helped to reduce the month's shortage of rainfall. Slightly over a half inch fell during this time. Mild low daily readings contributed to putting the week's temperatures slightly above normal.

Some rain fell last Thursday and early Friday. About .6 inch of rain fell during Tuesday's thunder storm and during rain showers from yesterday afternoon through this morning. This still leaves the August rainfall total about one and a half inches below normal. Skies were not clear as there was much haze and humidity. A hazy sun did shine at times.

Mercury has been in the low 80's several days but two cool days last week kept the average slightly below normal. Daily lows averaged about 4 degrees above normal. It was in the mild 50's yesterday morning and the morning and did not drop below 60 degrees at any time.

Wind have been mostly calm except during Tuesday's thunder storm and showers over night. The calm air contributed much to the stagnant air and hazy conditions.

FHA To Guarantee Emergency Loans

Financial assistance to livestock and poultry producers under the Emergency Livestock Credit Act will become available next week through a new loan guarantee authority of the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA), a rural credit service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

C. William Haines Jr., FmHA State Director for Delaware, Maryland and New Jersey said agency will be prepared to implement the recently-enacted law by guaranteeing up to 80 percent of possible loss on loans made by locally organized lenders to livestock and poultry producers.

Under terms of the act, the loan guarantee program will be in effect through July 25, 1975, and may be extended for 6 months.

Mr. Haines said producers may make applications to and complete loan arrangements with lending institutions. The lender in turn will ask FmHA for a loan guarantee if one is required. The lender will process the application, close the loan and service it.

The maximum loan to any single borrower that can be assisted by an FmHA guarantee is $200,000. Loans will be repayable in 7 years, although renewals for 2 years may be authorized. Interest rates are determined between borrower and lender.

Mr. Haines said the county FmHA office serving the area where the borrower's livestock or poultry operations are conducted will handle loan guarantee program.

The FmHA office serving Garrett and Allegany Counties is located at U.S. Route 219 North, Oakland. County Supervisor is Gareth W. Harshman.

OPEN LINE

By
Congressman Goodloe Byron
Maryland—Sixth District

This regular column serves as another vehicle to keep in touch with all segments of my constituency. It is an open invitation for you to question me on issues, let me assist you with your problems, request information or comment on whatever happens to be on your mind. Letters should be sent to me, c o U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. 20515. While space is obviously limited for printing all replies, I shall make every effort to answer each person who contacts me.

The following questions were typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks:

Does Maryland operate a camping information office?

Yes. The Maryland Department of Forests and Parks operates 1,132 "improved" and "unimproved" campsites. These allow room for the parking of one car and a camping trailer or erection of a tent. For instant camping information you may write to the Maryland Park Service, Tawes State Office Building, Annapolis 21401 or call (301)-768-0825. Be sure to ask for your free copy of its new brochure that outlines recreational pursuits at the 30 state parks and 10 state forests.

Where may I obtain a copy of the Federal Environmental Study "All Around You—An Environmental Study Guide" is published as a teacher's handbook by the Bureau of Land Management. Copies may be ordered for $1.10 from the Superintendent of Documents, 5801 Tabor Avenue, Philadelphia.

What is the U.S. paying to maintain its troops in Europe?

It is now costing over $6 billion a year to maintain a defensive force of 300,000 Americans in Europe. In this regard, I plan to support a proposal establishing a common NATO fund. Under this proposal no nation would suffer a deficit or enjoy a surplus in its balance of payments because of military deployments which benefit all of the members of the NATO jointly. Now is the time to apply pressure on our NATO allies to contribute more equally to the defense budget and troop reserve pools to alleviate our extreme balance-of-payments deficit.

I read where Black Lung claims are now handled by the Labor Department. Please comment.

The Department of Labor began to administer the Black Lung benefits program on July 1, 1973. The Social Security Administration will continue to have jurisdiction for certain types of claims. These include all claims which were filed prior to July 1, 1973, as well as claims by surviving dependents of deceased coal miners not previously entitled and filed before January 1, 1974.

Our American Government legislation and the terms "bill" and "act" were used interchangeably. However, isn't there a difference between these two terms?

"Bill" is the technical designation for a measure introduced in either House, and until it has been passed by that House. At that point it is reprinted as an act, that is, an act of one branch of the Congress. The term "act" is, however, popularly used in referring to a measure which has been finally passed by both Houses and becomes law whether by approval of the President or by passage over his veto.

Buckel Given Suspended Sentence For Gun Theft

Larry Wayne Buckel, 28, of Route 3, Grantsville, who pleaded guilty last month in Allegany County Circuit Court to the theft of several handguns valued at over $500, was given a two-year suspended sentence and placed on active probation for three years Tuesday, August 27.

Buckel pleaded guilty to stealing the guns from Prichard's Store on Main Street in Frostburg on May 4 when he was arraigned before Judge Harold L. Naughton.

Tuesday Judge Naughton suspended Buckel's two-year sentence in the custody of the Department of Correction on condition he commit himself to Springfield State Hospital for evaluation and treatment.

No End In Sight To Canning Lid Search

Local residents who are engaged in desperate searches for can lids for canning will not be much heartened by the word from Browning's Foodland this week on the shortage.

According to James Browning the Foodland chain has been calling each of its four suppliers daily in attempts to obtain the lids, but so far without success.

They are, however, taking names of those needing supplies at the store offices and will notify those who are listed when and if they are able to get supplies.

According to H. A. Metsker, general manager of the consumer's division of Kerr Glass Manufacturing, Sand Springs, Okla. money is the underlying factor in the critical shortage.

Tin-slated material used for lids was not in sufficient production by the steel companies because they can get more money making other items.

A lot of the tin-plated production of West Germany and Japan has in the past been sold to the U.S. but, since the devaluation of the dollar, these countries are selling the metal to other countries that can pay larger prices.

Attend Workshop

Jack Owens, of the publication department, University of Maryland, was the speaker and demonstrator at an all day communications workshop held at Garrett Community college, McHenry for Western Maryland Extension service aides.

Some of the points made by Mr. Owens were "our first objective is to get news read. Most important points should be first to capture the readers' interest, tell in brief form and add details as necessary."

Thirty-six aides and supervisors attended the meeting held on August 12.

J. Foley Injured Monday

John Foley, member of the Maryland State Police, was injured Monday in a motorcycle mishap near his home not far from Gorman.

He was hospitalized suffering from a slight concussion and other injuries after his cycle threw him about 15 feet in the air when it struck some woven fencing across a county highway.

The fencing had been put up temporarily to keep straying cattle from getting onto the highway before they could be herded home.

The impact when Foley struck the ground broke his safety helmet.

Youth Charged In Gas Station Theft

Paul Douglas Thayer, 19, of K street, Mt. Lake has been arraigned on charges connected with the Sunday morning larceny at the corner of Oak and Third Sts.

Young Thayer was charged Tuesday by town police officer Roger Lewis, who conducted the investigation and picked up the suspect in the county.

Thayer is the owner of a car implicated in the theft of $215 from the station about 6 a.m. Sunday. Paul's Pennzoil, owned by Paul Dove, Oakland, is the only local gasoline station open 24 hours a day.

According to the gasoline pump attendant, who was the only one on duty at the time of the theft, a car with four young men pulled into the station, and while he was checking the oil, the four went into the station. He asked them to come out, and three of the four went back to the car. When the attendant went back into the station, he noticed that the money had been tampered with and notified police.

Mr. Dove, owner of that station and Paul's Mt. Top Tire, was in Florida on his first vacation in nine years when the larceny occurred.

Thayer was released on $500 cash and is awaiting trial September 16.

Statement by Thomas E. Doyle
REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR County Commissioner

Recently, I was asked by a friend of mine, "Tom, you tell me what you're against, but what are you for?"
This question may enter the minds of some other persons so I'll point out some things I'm for:

a) I'm for: good, honest, responsible government, which is made up of elected officials who truly respond to the people.
b) I am for traditional concepts upon which this country was founded.
c) I am for the Constitution of the United States, as it was written, not as some people interpret it, example: The 2nd amendment provides " the right to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.' Your Governor has directly violated this law of the land, and in so doing, his oath of office has been violated when he has passed gun regulations. This is a flagrant breach of duty to the people of Maryland.
d) I am for an elected school board. I have talked to over 250 people on this specific subject. NOT ONE was in disagreement with me. If I am elected, it will be my objective to get this law passed by the Maryland legislation. At present, the governor appoints our school board and we have our schools run from Annapolis instead of from Garrett County.
e) I am for private enterprise conducting a survey if they desire and spending all the money they want to see if we need a convention hall in Garrett County. I feel it was an abuse of responsibility to spend the taxpayers money ($7,500) just for a survey.
f) I am for: Garrett County and the preservation of it — but by our local rules — not by some state or federal bureaucrats.
g) I am for — the taxpayers and his rights to be free of politicians seeking only power. But here the taxpayer must find out who he or they are. POWER CORRUPTS.
h) I am for a more practical form of bureaucracy. At present the supervisor in any government department has an incentive to enlarge his staff — this gives the supervisor a higher classification and higher salary. I am for giving that supervisor an incentive to make his staff more efficient, not larger.
i) I am for consolidation of bureaucracies which duplicate effort.
j) I am for many, many men and women in government who have done a good job.
k) I am for: man earning his bread by the sweat of his brow. This means you — yes you working for a living (if you are able).
l) I am for: pride of ownership; helping one in trouble; helping the disabled; the handicapped, the aged. Ponder though: do we really want Big Brother Government taking care of us from the cradle to the grave?
m) I am for: law enforcement, and punishing the criminal. I am for support of law officers at all times.
n) I am for giving the farmer a fair shake! If we kill his incentive to produce we will not have food. We can help by following the oldest law of economy known to man. It's the law of supply and demand! Eliminate controls. Milk at the store has gone up $ .20 per gallon; the farmer in the same period has taken a cut of over $1.00 per 100 pounds. Friends — this is serious.
o) I am for — the present administration turning our tax money back to us (by a rate reduction) instead of creating more bureaucracies. A $ .25 reduction was in order this fiscal year. The base has increased, revenue funds have come into the County and our services have stayed the same. To believe any fast talking politician today who disagrees is to believe in fantasy.
p) I am for having a monthly public meeting in the evening at which time the people can communicate with the County Commissioners.
q) I am for education — but to misuse knowledge to gain power is wrong.
r) I am for the American way — where we can state our beliefs, where we can take a stand, where we can criticize our foes and where we can vote them out of office when they let us down.
s) I am for the men, women and youngsters who have been so dedicated and wonderful in the past weeks. They have volunteered without any promises EXCEPT HONESTY. That is my promise to you.
t) These are but a few things I am for and I hope you will be for me in the coming Primary and General elections.
u) You too can help on a mandate for getting Garrett County's power back to the people and returning some of their freedom.

Thank you so much my friends and taxpayers of Garrett County.

COTTAGE OWNERS

Are you prepared to become a statistic? Summer is almost over and your cherished home-away-from-home becomes an easy target for vandals and thieves.

FBI statistics indicates that crimes of burglary and vandalism, once concentrated in the big cities, are now flourishing in previously safe and secure suburban and rural areas.

Resort and recreational areas, such as Deep Creek Lake with many beautiful second homes, because of their remote location and sparse police protection, provide a mecca for burglars and vandals.

WHAT HAVE YOU DONE TO PROTECT YOUR INVESTMENT AND INSURE PEACE OF MIND WHEN LEAVING YOUR COTTAGE?

GSSC will provide you with peace of mind through the custom installation of an advanced electronic surveillance and alarm system.

FBI statistics show that less than 1 in 41 thousand break-in attempts are continued AFTER AN ALARM HAS SOUNDED!!!

Fall Fashion Forecast

The heat is still on but there will soon be a hint of crispness in the air. Fall is coming and with it comes changing attitudes and bright new fashions. Soft, fluid styling, very fine and figure flattering, are the keynotes for the season. Though pants still reign, going cuffless and with a modified flare, skirts are catching the eyes and ayes. Skirts are fuller, swingy, often gored, allowing easy movement. Watch for yesteryear's waist-easy elasticized dirndl updated for fashion appeal.

Dresses feature the fuller skirt, blouson topped with dolman, raglan or kimono-like sleeves. Tent shaping reappears with deep necklines, full sleeves and gentle contours through the midriff.

It's the year of touchable fabrics including soft brushed jerseys, texturized knits, crinkly crepes, fluffy mohair blends, deep chenilles and supple challis. Many of the fabrics are launderable, even machine washable and dryable. Check care labels in garments and follow insructions. Together with washability, wardrobe planning means economy—so important these days. Last year's skirts or pants can be given a new look with the addition of tops. Cordinaes and switchable separates are bigger than ever with the emphasis on sweaters of all kinds.

Cardigans are important in tweeds and muted fall tones. Big hoy hulkies are easy going, but not sloppy, often with notched or mock turtle collars. Look for flecked yarns, space-dyes, stitch variation, such as boucle teamed with cable. Intricate patterns are worked in subtle color combinations. Stripes and diagonals are newsy. Lengths are from short to long, with wrap sweaters getting attention. Sweater-Shirt styling allows great versatility for every mood and any time of day. Some sweaters are worked like jackets to give a suit-like appearance to separates.

Some of the new fashions feature bright embroidery or jewels. Sweaters in particular are offering collar accents of fake fur, looped yarn or coque feathers. When shopping, look to see that decorative trim on an otherwise washable garment is easy to remove and replace.

Colors are dusty shades of teal, rose, blue, rust and jade along with earth tones from buckwheat through the whole brown spectrum to deep chocolate. The naturals team with yellow, green or taupe, and darks such as oxblood and inkblue are in vogue. The fabric combination is jade or tea[illegible] with brown and rust with beige running a close second.

Recreation

What do we need for one of the county's most important industries? First, we need to preserve what attracts tourists — our natural beauty, the lake, etc. But there is something missing and I believe what we need is the following:

An ongoing attraction (such as Sea World, Narrow Gauge Railroad, Seldom Seen Mine, etc.) having the following characteristics:

A. Family oriented
B. Unique
C. It must not be honky-tonk in nature or offensive to local population
D. It must fit into our environmental standards
E. It must have the potential to help the county as a whole, not just certain business interests.

I realize that this is a tall order, but in order to stimulate thought, I am hereby offering $500.00 of my own money, for on acceptable idea submitted to me between now and January 1, 1975.

Agriculture

I would like to see some new bono fide farmers in the county, since they contribute greatly to the economy. To attempt to get this done, I propose that the county pay expenses of a committee (2 or 3 people) who would contact farmers in Suburban Maryland, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania being forced out by urbanization and explain the virtues of farming in this county. Also, the county might advertise in trade journals. This would cost the county perhaps $1,000.00 per year. This type of farmer would have considerable assets from disposal of his property near the city and would contribute much to our economy.

This very approach is being used in certain areas of Central Pennsylvania with great success.

No Injuries Noted In Several Minor Mishaps Recently

A number of minor accidents occurred in the northern and central sections of the county last week. There were no apparent personal injuries.

Last Thursday morning Terry Lee Bowman, Boonsboro, was traveling east on U.S. Route 40 near the Lower New Germany road. A car driven by James R. Miller, Flintstone, pulled into Route 40 from the westbound shoulder to go east after a turnaround in a private drive. Bowman hit the Miller car in the rear and then struck the guard rail.

Trooper Dale K. Williams charged Miller with failing to yield the right-of-way.

Stella Mae Layman, Grantsville, was stopped in a driveway to yield the right-of-way to vehicles on U.S. Route 40 last Wednesday afternoon. After sitting at the intersection on an up grade for some time, the power brakes faded and the car rolled onto Route 40. To avoid hitting a truck Stella Layman's car hit the parked car of James O. Wilburn, Main Street, Grantsville.

Trooper Ronald C. Georg investigated.

Two afternoons after this, a rig hit another parked car in almost the same location.

A one-car mishap occurred on U.S. Route 219 in Thayerville late last Wednesday evening.

Joyce Susanne DelSignore, RD 1, Gormania, while traveling south, skidded from the southbound lane onto the shoulder and collided with the adjacent guard rail. Cpl. Stephen M. Russell charged her with negligent driving.

Another one-car accident happened on the Mayhew Inn road east of the Bray School road late last Monday evening.

Maureen C. McCormick, Charleroi, Pa., was going west when the right front dropped off the road surface into a 4 to 6 inch ditch causing the operator to lose control and collide with a utility pole. Tfc. Ronald S. Lewis made no charges.

The report of an accident on the Sand Flat road noted in last week's Republican stated that the cows involved belonged to John Wilt which is according to State Police records. This office has since been advised that the cows belong to Donald Wilt. The wrong information was apparently given to the State Police.

Second Youth Is Found Guilty Of Drug Possession

A second Bruceton Mills, W. Va., youth was found guilty of possession of drugs by Judge Lewis R. Jones in District Court Tuesday.

Terry Lynn Feather pleaded not guilty on two charge: possession of marijuana and possession of LSD. Judge Jones found him guilty on both charges.

His brother, Wilford Mike Feather, pleaded guilty to two charges at a trial July 29, the charges being possession of marijuana and a minor in possession of alcohol. Sentence on these charges was delayed pending the outcome of the trial of Terry Lynn Feather.

Tuesday, a pre-sentence investigation was ordered in both cases.

A charge of a minor in possession of alcohol, placed against Terry Lynn Feather, was deleted. His case had been delayed, having first been sent to juvenile court but was returned to District Court as he was 18 years old last February.

A minor in these cases is one under 21 years but over 18.

Zehner-Waller Nuptials Held

Janet Aileen Waller became the bride of James Maurice Zehner during an early afternoon ceremony Saturday, August 17, in the Beulah United Presbyterian church, Penn Hills, Pittsburgh.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton H. Waller, of Frankstown road, Penn Hills. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Zehner of Somerset, route 5, formerly of Grantsville and Accident.

Dr. Hubert Brom, church pastor, and the Rev. Paul White, pastor of the Somerset Church of the Brethren officiated.

John Zehner, of Somerset served as his brother's best man. Carol Close, of Reading, Pa. bride's roommate at Medical school was maid of honor, while Mrs. Sandra Sylvester, Bloomington, Ind., served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Winona Zehner, bridegroom's sister-in-law, Somerset; Peggy and Nancy Waller, bride's sisters, Pittsburgh. Susan Green, bridegroom's cousin, Middletown N. J. was flower girl.

Ushers were Roger Pyle, North Carolina; Jay Shaffer, Somerset; Jacob Shaffer Pittsburgh; David Waller, bride's brother State college. Kenny Zehner, bridegroom's nephew, was ringbearer.

The bride was attired in an ivory gown of organza accented with beaded peau d'ange lace. It was fashioned with a high crown neckline, long bishop sleeves, an empire bodice, and lace trimmed chapel train. Her two tier illusion veil was held by a matching camelot headpiece.

Her attendants wore gowns of flocked Swiss fabric in pastel shades of rainbow colors trimmed in matching organza and matching flower headpieces in their hair.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of stepanotis and baby's breath with ivy. The houquets carried by the bridesmaids included daisies with carnations to harmonize with their gowns.

The bride's mother wore a yellow floor-length lace gown and a corsage of apricot roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue silk floor length gown with a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the hall adjoining the church. Mrs. Kathryn Smith, Davis, W. Va., aunt of the bridegroom, attended the guest register.

Upon their return from a honeymoon to the Laurentan Mountains in Quehec, Canada, they will make their home at 120 Ruskin, Pittsburgh.

Laughing children splash and splutter in the shallows. Farther out, big boys race and tear in noisy games of tag. Fathers show their children how to swim, while mothers smile encouragement. Lovers nestle close on striped blankets, and grandmas nod sleepily under big-brimmed hats. The day is good, a day of sand and sea and clear blue sky.

Then a whistle shrieks, and laughter stills as life guards work to save a life. Dread hovers, and even when the child is safe within his mother's arms, for some the day is tarnished.

It's easy to be gay on picnic days. But, when tragedy comes close and fears clamor, life's happiness is a temporary thing. Where can you find confidence?

Your church has the answer. It is the abiding place of God. Within its fellowship through prayer and worship, you can learn that God is the center of your life and that His goodness never wavers.

MAN'S "WHY?"

Lesson for September 1, 1974

Background Scripture: Genesis 1 through 3.

Psychialrist Viktor Frankl says that if a man has a "why?" for living, he will find a "how?"

That's another way of saying that "Where there's a will, there's a way." If life has a purpose, we can meet its challenges.

Rev. Allhouse

If a man has some idea of why he is here, he can find a way to survive and prevail.

Recent medical studies indicate that there is a significant jump in the mortality rate of men within the first eighteen months after retirement. It is believed that the loss of purpose has a direct relationship and effect upon their will to live.

In his own image

A psychiatrist decided to test this idea and hired a man to participate in an experiment: he was to work for several hours, swinging an axe against a tree in the yard, but with the blade of the axe turned away from the tree! The hired man thought it would be a simple job, but after a while he quit, saying: "I've got to be able to see the chips fly!"

So it is with most of life: we have to "see the chips fly!" We have to have some purpose, some goal to achieve, some plan to fulfill. Working or playing aimlessly soon takes a heavy toll of us. Life has to have a goal and a direction.

The Bible begins with the purpose that man is given by his Creator. In Genesis we find that man is, first of all, created "in the image of God" (Genesis 1:27). No other creature was so endowed. No other aspect of creation receives this divine heritage.

But Genesis tells us, not only of man's divine heritage, but also of his purpose. The divine image of God is given to man, not just to enjoy, but to employ in a God-given task: "Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion . . ." (1:28).

Have dominion

Man has a purpose: to be God's steward of the universe. God places man in his garden and asks him to tend that garden so that it will be fruitful. The writer of Psalm 8 expresses this same thought:

For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet . . . (Psalm 8:5, 6)

Man has always been at his best when he has been aware of and responsive to that divine heritage and purpose. At his worst, he has forgotten his purpose and squandered his inheritance. He has abused the earth and its resources. He has abused God's creation and rendered to him a poor stewardship. Society always suffers when man forgets his God-given purpose.

As Frankl puts it, when we find our purpose in life, our reason for being, we will find a way.

DR. JONES IS ON THE PHONE

Hardly a day goes by in our pharmacy where we do not have to talk to a physician. It can be for a great many reasons. It might be about a prescription he has written, a health-aid or a sickroom item that has been called for. Sometimes it is just for information on a new drug or a special dosage form on an old one.

The professional relationship we have established with the medical profession is one of which we are proud. It is helping us to offer the type of pharmacy service that you expect from us.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Commissioners Conduct Routine Business Monday

Mark Morey, of the County Planning department, reviewed the national floodplain insurance program with the County Commissioners at their weekly meeting Monday. He said the federal government was trying to institute the program to help underwrite the costs incurred with national disasters such as hurricanes.

The county received a grant of $7,500 from the Department of Economic and Community Development to perform a feasibility study for a conference center in the county. Once the study is completed the department will present the proposal to private industry and state agencies for review. The commissioners said the study would take some six months.

The Commissioners awarded bids to Atlantic Mobile Corporation at $6,100 for an office trailer to be located at the Round Glade Sanitary Landfill. The solid waste grant for the county provides the funding for this facility, it was stated.

An additional $7,131.1 was paid to the county from the Forest Service under the Department of Natural Resources from revenue collected at state parks.

The commissioners appointed Dr. Joseph Alvarez, Edward Livengood and Jerry Humberson to the Emergency Medical Services Advisory council for region 1 which includes Garrett and Allegany counties. The advisory council is making preparations for an emergency medical service which would enable residents in these two countries to have improved medical care in emergency situations, it was stated.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir

Monday, 12 August, while in Oakland, I went out to the "dog pound." Since there wasn't anyone there I looked around and found conditions deplorable.

One structure is very old and weather beaten with air vents spaced approximately 6 to 8 inches from the roof. Attached to the outside of this building was what looked to be at one time a cage of some sort for catching small wild animals. Inside this cage were two medium-sized dogs that were apparently quite ill along with 3 to 4 tin coffee cans with the floor being 2 3 covered with dog dung that from all appearances had been there for some time. There wasn't adequate space for one dog to be comfortable or to lay down, let alone for the two that were confined inside that cage. The odor around these confinements would have knocked a healthy bull off his feet.

The other structure is a building of corrugated tin with air vents spaced out close to the roof. These buildings are extremely inadequate and there isn't any possible way by which they can be cleaned and hosed out properly.

The one human those unfortunate animals have to thank for the air vents in both of those buildings is the Garrett County dog warden, Ray C. Arnold. This man took money from his own pocket to provide those animals with as much comfort as possible. This man has also had to practically beg for fond for these animals and through the generosity of some Garrett County merchants they have provided Mr. Arnold with some of the necessities he has to have. But the deplorable conditions still remain.

Since I am a Vice President of the Animal Welfare Society, it is our duty to see to the welfare of animals. Not just to try to find good homes for animals, or to see that they are put out of their misery humanely when that is the only recourse, or going into sewers to rescue them, or up trees, on busy highways, on roofs, and any one of numerous places we get a call to go. But at the same time it is also our duty to try to educate the many, many pet owners to have their pets spayed and or neutered when the pet is of age. Any veterinarian can tell you when the proper time is. If you would only take your pets to your local veterinarian, I'm sure you could make some sort of satisfactory arrangements with him.

Until we do this and until we stop unloading all these unwanted cats, kittens, dogs, and puppies on the public we will continue to have our pounds overloaded, understaffed, and inadequate, not to mention the scores we so cowardly and callously place on our busy highways, streets, towns, and cities.

Mrs. Alice M. Neff

This is a copy of a letter sent to the County Commissioners.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR GARRETT COUNTY, MARYLAND
No. 6536 EQUITY

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

This is to give notice that on August, 1974, a Bill of Complaint was filed in the above entitled case in the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland, by Carl DelSignore against Russell G. Upole, Oscar Dale Upole, Harold H. Upole, Lulu Upole Weeks and Woodrow P. Upole. The object of said Bill of Complaint is to obtain a Decree for the sale of the real estate mentioned in said Bill of Complaint.

The Bill recites:

That Alta J. Upole was, during her lifetime, seized and possessed of two tracts or parcels of land situate in Election District No. 10, Garrett County, Maryland, the first containing 74.6 acres and the second containing 25 acres, excepting, however the minerals underlying said 74.6 acre tract. That George T. Upole, husband of the said Alta J. Upole, was seized and possessed of said property during his lifetime. The said George T. Upole departed this life testate and title to said property became vested in his widow, the said Alta J. Upole, and 10 children, to-wit: Russell G. Upole, Catherine Upole Sines, Oscar Dale Upole, Albert Lee Upole, Harold H. Upole, Lulu Upole Weeks, Woodrow P. Upole, Helen J. Smith, Virginia Upole Leonard and Della Upole Green; that by deed dated May 12, 1956, and recorded in Liber No. 197, folio 241, one of the Land Records of Garrett County, Maryland, said 10 children of George T. Upole and their respective spouses conveyed to the said Alta J. Upole an undivided 2/3 interest in and to said property, certified copy of said deed being filed herewith and prayed to be taken as a part hereof, that while so seized and possessed with said property the said Alta J. Upole departed this life testate and by the terms of her Last Will and Testament recorded in Wills Liber H, folio 122, one of the Wills Records of Garrett County, Maryland, she devised said real estate to seven of her said children, to-wit: Russell G. Upole, Oscar Dale Upole, Harold H. Upole, Lulu Weeks, Woodrow P. Upole, Albert Lee Upole and Virginia Leonard, certified copy of said Last Will and Testament being filed herewith and prayed to be taken as a part hereof, that by deed dated June 18, 1974, and recorded in Liber No. 350, folio 195, one of the said Land Records, the said Albert Lee Upole conveyed his undivided 1/7 interest in and to said property to the Plaintiff, said deed being attached hereto and prayed to be taken as a part hereof; that by deed dated July 16, 1974, and recorded in Liber No. 250, folio 562, one of the said Land Records, the said Virginia Leonard conveyed her undivided 1/7 interest in and to said property to the Plaintiff, said deed being attached hereto and prayed to be taken as a part hereof; that said real estate is not susceptible of partition in kind and it would be for the best interest of all the parties hereto that said real estate be sold and the proceeds divided among those according to their respective interests; that the Bill of Complaint then prays that a Decree be passed for the sale of the real estate mentioned in said Bill of Complaint and that the proceeds arising from such sale be distributed among those entitled thereto according to their respective interests.

WHEREFORE, it is ordered by the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland, this 14th day of August, 1974, that the Plaintiff cause a copy of this Order to be inserted in a newspaper published in Garrett County, Maryland, once a week for four successive weeks before the 14th day of September, 1974, giving notice to the said Lulu Upole Weeks of the object and substance of the Bill of Complaint, and warning her to show cause, if any she may have, on or before the 15th day of October, 1974, why a Decree should not be passed as prayed.

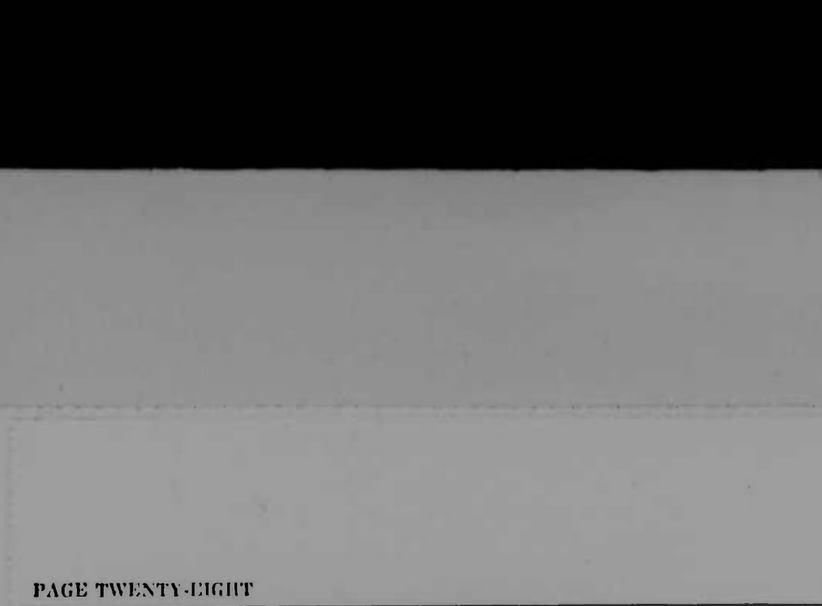
Remembering Max



By Christian Renninger

John M. Jarboe, who died last week after a long, prosperous and happy life, was a special friend of mine. I'm tempted to say extra special, but I'm afraid too many residents of Oakland have already laid claim to his place in their lives. Let's say that lots of you knew him better than I.

Of course no one knew John M.; they knew Max. I first met him 17 years ago when I was spending a summer with my grandmother, Mrs. Norman I. Broadwater. That seemingly gruff old gent with the snow white hair (he had it washed once each week, without fail) suggested I spend at least one night each week at the new Garrett County Playhouse. His enthusiasm for its company and its success was one of his true joys. So I took him up on it, and he was always happy to see me at the ticket window.

Later, after the Playhouse season had ended, I somewhat hesitantly ventured several doors down Alder Street to visit, knowing he'd either be rocking on his porch or reading in his leather chair, invariably one of a dozen or so thrillers he kept at its foot.

I can't remember how many separate trips I made, but for the next 17 years I kept coming back. Max told me literally everything I know about Oakland, in the process introducing me to both my grandfathers who died before I had the chance to know them. He talked about many fine old families, and took me through Oakland's heyday at the turn of the 20th-century, with all its hotels and its importance on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad line. There was the inevitable first tour through his grand house, the beautiful antiques, the authentic paintings. And each year there would be something new; a dish, a piece of marble fireplace, a table or bed. Max knew who ate out of it, who sat or slept in it, and who passed it to whom. "The Melting Pot" (though I never heard anyone call it that) was so much more than a house. It should be preserved as an historical landmark, one man's love for one small city. I guess that it won't, but with his passing, I have a feeling the books may close on his era for good.

For many years Max lived with two sisters—a better term might have been "put up with"—and while I'm quite sure he loved both dearly, he cherished his bachelorhood like no man I ever knew. Out of this late but well-earned freedom inevitably came the things bachelors do, travels and adventures and a thousand stories, some of which weren't for everyone. Max was Oakland's most gracious gentleman and raconteur. And he could be earthy with the best of them.

After I was a bit older, he and I would spend many nights on the porch with a bottle of Old Grand Dad bourbon. On one of these occasions, very, very late when it would not be my late to crawl home, much less walk, he invited me to stay the night. What followed was a graphic demonstration—was he 75, 80 or 85?— of the joys of sleeping in the buff. "I have never worn pajamas", he remarked, climbing into President Grover Cleveland's honeymoon bed, a prize he captured from the Old Deer Park Hotel. "If I did, I'd never sleep. One of life's pure delights."

Like all the experiences and the jokes (thousands) we shared, Oakland, however no one held better court.

One vivid recollection I have is when he produced from some carefully chosen pages of a Western Maryland history, a family tree. He was very proud of the Jarboes, and he knew them all, from the first to touch ground in America. He kept many secret little papers filed away, a plot for a short story, a poem, a recounting of a special event. All were in special places. A Jarboe he showed me, had once been president of Georgetown University, in Washington where I lived. I mentioned he should see the city, how it had changed over the years.

The night was cool, crickets chirped, only a single light shown on Alder Street. "No," he smiled, "Oakland's my home. I can't leave it." It wasn't the only time he said something like that to me. The ritual was understood. And now, of course he'll never leave.

American Freedom and Christian Responsibility

By Rev. W. H. Leake, Deer Park, Md.

"A COMMUNIST," said Nikita Khrushchev in his report to the Central Committee on February 14, 1956, "has no right to be a mere onlooker!" "Your grandchildren will grow up under Communism!" he later shouted to us Americans.

How does this threat, this dedication, this determination affect you? Do you shrug your shoulders and say, "But I'm not responsible."

If this is you, have you forgotten our forefathers who were willing to stand up and be counted? Have you lost the will to resist? Does your patriotism consist merely in a desire for security? Are you shifting the blame, shirking responsibility? Is the cult of convenience worshipped by you?

Yes, Christians are responsible. This is a spiritual battle, against principalities, powers, rulers of darkness.

In any area of life a dynamic Christian life is of great importance, because the Christian has an opportunity to demonstrate in practice the implications of the gospel as they work out in the Christian life. The Christian has the responsibility to make his Christianity practical, regardless of his vocation. We must adhere to the Biblical standard that an effective Christian life must manifest the fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22, 23).

The Lord put the challenge this way: "I SOUGHT FOR A MAN AMONG THEM THAT SHOULD MAKE UP THE HEDGE, AND STAND IN THE GAP BEFORE ME FOR THE LAND, THAT I SHOULD NOT DESTROY IT: BUT I FOUND NONE" (Ezekiel 22:30). Will this be America's epitaph because Christians were too busy for themselves?

YOU are responsible for your family! YOU are responsible for the future course of our nation and its relation with the nations of the world! YOU are responsible for maintaining our freedom! YOU are responsible for helping prevent the grip of decadent socialism upon our land! YOU are responsible for selecting your government and civic leaders! AND IF YOU SAY YOU ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE, THEN WHO IS? From a speech YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE by Senator John B. Conlan, Jr. Phoenix, Arizona.

PLEASE REMEMBER: NO ONE WINS WHEN FREEDOM FAILS; THE BEST MEN ROT IN FILTHY JAILS AND THOSE WHO CRIED APPEASE. APPEASE, ARE HANGED BY THOSE THEY TRIED TO PLEASE.

2.Eliminate Special Interest contribution. Educate the public for greater participation in the elective process by telling them the politician believes that political machines and Special Interests put them in Power more than the public and consequently, they place those interests ahead of the public interest. WILLIAM A. ALBAUGH (D) Mt. Rainier. Age 51. Understand and support Constitution Art. IV, Sec. 2 which prohibits removing land like DC from Maryland unless placed in another state where resident citizens retain equal Congressional voting rights. Believe DC has not been legally removed from Maryland and that present US senate elections are unconstitutional if DC citizens excluded.
1. Yes. Faced with an Arab energy crisis, we must up-date our plans to optimize the use of our limited energy resources, guarantee full employment, and to maintain reasonable controls over water and air pollution.
2. Yes. We need a Democratic veto-proof Congress which will force the Nixon administration to protect the interests of the little person, to avoid becoming involved in new Vietnam-type wars, and to adopt adequate price-wage-profit controls to stop the run-away inflation.
3. Yes. I support the earlier Kennedy-Griffiths comprehensive national health insurance plan (before Wilbur Mills watered it down) which provided twice as much as the Nixon alternative and was paid for directly from government taxes rather than through private insurance middlemen.

Md. National Guard; NCO Club, FSC Alumni Association; NAIA Distinguished Athlete Association; GCTA, MSTA, NEA (Educational Associations.)

1. Favor - Garrett County is expanding. We need some type of direction instead of letting things grow chaotically and then trying to correct them.

2. Depending on need: roads; health, social services; sheriff's department. Would include education but its my understanding these funds can't be used for that.

3. With the tax base increasing and circumstances continually changing, this would be very hard to predict. I can see no need to raise taxes now.

4. The only solution which seems feasible, at this time, is some type of bus system.

DONALD R. GLOTFELTY (R) Accident. Veterinarian-Real Estate Developer; D.V.M. U. of Georgia; B.S. Univ. of Maryland; Lions Club; Deep Creek Business Assoc.; Lutheran church; A.V.M.A.; Accident PTA.

1. For Deep Creek, a practical necessity to have some overall direction to development, plan must include; local administration, simplicity, respect for land-ownership tradition and laws.

2. Why should revenue sharing funds be attached a priority any more than cigarette tax for example? Include R.S. funds in general levy; allows more flexibility.

3. Common sense would seem to dictate if money was needed to balance a reasonable budget, the law would leave no recourse but a rate increase.

4. Present plans for transportation, primarily elderly, will help solve the worst of the problem, otherwise we have other problems much more serious in Garrett Co.

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

The State Central Committees are the governing bodies of the Democratic and Republican parties. The Committee guides its party policies, finances state campaigns, and recommends candidates for state appointive positions. Should a vacancy occur between primary and general elections in the party's nominations for office, the Committee is empowered to fill the vacancy. The members elected to each county committee form the State Central Committee for that county. They serve without compensation for four-year terms and choose their own officers.

1. No. However, legislation should have built-in flexibility so as to allow the least injury to our economy and energy needs, compatible with our environmental requirements. Preservation of the environmement is one of our most precious resources.
2. Imbalance of Executive power over Congressional power is now on the decline. Congress is moving to close the gap between its influence on our way of life and that of the Executive Branch. Recent shocking revelations have awakened a sleeping giant.
3. Yes, but one which would preserve the dignity of the doctor-patient relationship, a plan which would not be overly burdensome on the taxpayer nor restrictive in its application against the free practice of medicine, a plan which will adequately care for our Nation's health needs.

ROY L. CHAMBERS (D) Pr. George's County. Age 54. Former civil service employee; Education-college; Veteran; Key worker in Wallace campaigns, State of Maryland; Vice Chairman of Independent Party of Maryland, 1969-74; Member of American Legion, Moose, N.R.A. and Board of Trade Prince George's County businessman; Candidacy indorsed by National Crusaders Against Busing. . .
1. Environment can be improved through research and prudent application. Some laws are not being enforced that should be. I favor legislation to remove leaded gasoline from the market. The able-bodied welfare recipients should be utilized to help clean up our tributaries as well as building recreational areas and parks.
2. It is true that for many years the senate and congress have given powers to the president's office that the Constitution never intended nor authorized, thereby creating excessive executive power, while at the same time reducing the power of both houses of congress.
3. I do support medical research on the national level. I could support a national health insurance plan, provided that it is not compulsory for an individual or group, and that it does not in any way interfere, nor compete with private medical practice or facilities.

WALTER G. FINCH (D) Catonsville. Age 56. Education: M.A. Engineering; J.D. in Law; M.A. Law; M.B.A. (Business). Professions: Patent and Taxation Lawyer; C.P.A.; Registered Professional Engineer. Professional Organizations: Bars of Courts of Md. and D.C. Federal Bar Assoc.; International Patent and Trademark Assoc.; World Peace Through Law Center. Delegate; Md. Constitutional Convention from Baltimore Co., 1967-68, member . . . .
1. Perhaps in maybe a few specific areas the laws are maybe too restrictive, but in other technological advances like the wetlands, the laws should definitely be even more restrictive.
2. The only imbalance of power lies between the Judiciary Branch and the other two Branches. The Legislative and Executive Branches should assert their powers as lawmakers rather than let the courts make the laws through interpretation.
3. Yes. I believe that all Americans deserve immediate and adequate medical treatment whether or not they can afford it. However, the government should still allow the doctors some financial discretion in order to maintain America's high medical standards as well as morale and incentive.

BARBARA A. MIKULSKI (D) Baltimore. Age 38. Present Baltimore City councilwoman; Sociology Professor, Loyola College and Community College of Baltimore; public administrator - fifteen years. Chairwoman, Democratic National Committee's Commission on Delegate Selection. League member; National Women's Political Caucus. Master's Degree, University of Maryland; two honorary doctorates, including Goucher College. Published, New York Times and Redbook magazine.
1. No inherent conflict exists between meeting our energy needs and safeguarding the environment. Present laws are not necessarily too restrictive -- but industry often moves too slowly. The government must therefore creatively promote environmental protection, perhaps through use of tax incentives Government should provide rewards for the improvement of the quality . . .
2. Preoccupation with porkbarrel legislation has effected an abdication of Congressional responsibility. The imbalance can be cured through amplification of three Congressional functions: budgetary formulation and control; meaningful use of advise/consent powers; and vigorous watchdogging of federal programs. Congress can reawaken dormant authority if it stops.
3. The availability of comprehensive health care services for every American must be regarded as a fundamental right. I support a national health care plan that provides: a full continuum of health care to every age group; full federal funding; insured care for the aged; and covers catastrophic medical expenses.

ROBERT J. ROOSEVELT (D) Bethesda. Age 62. Great-Great-Grandson of Pres. Teddy Roosevelt. Great-Great ½ nephew of Pres. FDR. In constant contact with US Senate. Have Hot Line priviledge of information from high govt. Have more prestige and ability than other candidates. Many years of political activity. Have relations in senate and congress.
1. Many Senators overdo environmental and neglect economic and energy emergencies. Roosevelt recommends a Potomac River Dam to generate electricity. It would supply enough electricity to heat homes and solve energy problems. It would provide jobs and solve economic problems - solve economic and energy problems with Roosevelt.
2. No. Nixon usurps congressional power promising billions to enemy nations that are preparing for war against us. A vote of two thirds of the senate is required to make deals with other nations. Senators usurp presidential power, instead of removing him from office -- solution -- new president new senators.
3. Senate corruption prevents proper health programs from being presented. Therefore, it is necessary to oppose instead of supporting national health insurance. A large insurance co. bribed senators to pass health insurance so the government would pay medical expenses which insurance co's. should pay.

1. It appears to me that they may be. We certainly cannot afford to be energy short so maybe we need more time to get changed over to a pollutant-free environment.
2. Not necessarily so but perhaps needs clearer defining. Perhaps Watergate will bring this to the fore.
3. Not totally, based on my information. However, I think Medicare for the elderly is very helpful and I believe that our needy or indigent should receive help.

Commissioned USAF 9/62. Shot down POW 1966. Repatriated 1973. Recipient of numerous military and civic award, local and national. Adult life spent in public service and plan to continue.
1. Striking a balance between economic development, full employment, consumer demands, and the preservation of our environment requires skill, sensitivity, and goodwill. Legislators have only begun to explore what government can do to achieve a good balance. Currently, developing new ideas for future announcement in my campaign.
2. Of course, there is an imbalance. Congress only recently has come to realize how its powers have slipped away in the face of a determined Executive. I believe it is high time to return the people's power from faceless officials to the people's representatives who must be held accountable for their actions.
3. Yes. National Health Insurance must assure all citizens of quality health care which they and the nation can afford.

JON ALLEN THOMPSON (D) Monkton. Age 33. Raised in farming area Balto. Co., Balto. Co. public schools. 2 yrs. college. Honorable discharge U.S.A.F. Self made man. Successful in own business. Able to size up people and situations fast. Know history, world affairs, and economics. Conservative open mind, with fresh ideas. Young, healthy, energetic. Free of political machines.
1. Environmental laws must be flexible to accommodate an expanding industrial society. Business is the backbone of America. At the same time we must keep our country fit to live in. Every effort must be made to make America a properous, healthy, enjoyable place to live.
2. Due mostly to machine politics, the executive branch is unquestionably the more dominate, Congressional members have continuously allowed the White House to assume more power. Sometimes have even voted to hand over duties the constitution prescribes to Congress. We must elect officials who will stand up for American principles. . .
3. There is a need for a national health insurance plan. Caution should be exercised in this type of program. Often the cost exceeds the worth. I would at least support a major medical type program with the government taking over, at say 8 or 10 thousand dollars. Will seek more . . .

A Navy veteran, served as Assistant Attorney General of Maryland (1953-4), City Attorney of Frederick (1954-9), a member of the Maryland House of Delegates (1959-60), U.S. Representative. . .
1. While we will have to continue adjusting environmental laws to reflect the latest scientific thought, we can not depart from our commitment to a clean environment. If human activities are undertaken at the expense of the land, the air, or the water, we will pay a terrible price.
2. Yes, A more responsive and responsible Congress; a clarification of executive privilege, impoundment, and war powers; a reformed process of handling the Federal budget; more openness in all areas of government; major reforms in campaign financing, full disclosure of all public officials' personal finances, and far greater citizen involvement in...

ROSS Z. PIERPONT (R) Baltimore. Age 56. Public Interests and experience: I have extensive experience in structure and operation of both political parties. Left Democratic Party despite many years' active participation when party practices conflicted with my personal integrity. Have invested time and funds in efforts to infuse Republican Party of Maryland with new vitality and responsiveness. . .
1. Present laws adequate. Problem is application. Sewage moratoria that stop home-building solve one problem but cause another. Unbuilt refineries will cause cold homes, lost jobs. We must work toward proper balances between energy, economy, environment. Example: I have participated in actions solving sewage problems without new law.
2. Our constitution has proven itself over two centuries in both granting and restraining powers. Current problems: congressional failure to exercise its constitutional powers: also congressional irresponsibility. Basic reforms: stop delegating power to executive agencies without congressional review. Re-vitalize Senate's advise-consent function. Control spending within total budget enacted before appropriations.
3. I support national health care. Having studied other countries' plans, I recommend adapting French plan to U.S. under three criteria: protect the patient: be acceptable to providers (physicians and institutions): be financially sound. My program forestalls abuse, is flexible, covers catastrophic illness, accidents.

1. There has to be a balance between the needs of society with regard to the environment and energy. Existing law provides adequate protection for the environment although further legislation in the area of strip mining is needed. Further additions to wilderness lands are needed throughout the country.

2. The greatest imbalance has been in the control of the budget. Congress has moved in the direction of correcting this imbalance with the passage of the Congressional Budgetary Control Act. It is imperative that the overall budget be considered by the Congress on an annual basis instead of the piecemeal . . .

3. I have backed two versions of national health insurance legislation providing for a voluntary system of employer-employee contributions which would provide for the most important element of health assistance -- catastrophic illness coverage in the event of a prolonged or chronic illness involving high costs.

1. No. We are perfectly capable of meeting reasonable energy and economic needs without lowering environmental standards. We need to make a major national commitment to develop solar, wind and ocean energy as soon as possible. This will both boost the economy and favor a clean, high quality environment.

2. Yes. Limit Executive authority to initiate military action abroad or impound appropriated funds. Insist that Administrative studies of the effects of science and technology be accessible to Congress at all stages of development. Extend term of U.S. Representatives to four years.

Same Vital Plea . . .

Every two years the same vital plea is made for citizens to assume their responsibility and take a patriotic interest in voting. This year is no exception, and in fact there ought to be renewed interest in this responsibility and duty.

Having just come through Watergate and all its implications, exercising the right to vote should restore faith in our democratic way of life. Voting also would have the tendency to nominate qualified candidates in both parties for the coming general election.

So here is our plea once again. Go to the polls next Tuesday, September 10, and cast your vote for those you have selected to represent you in your county, state and national government. Renew your faith in America.

St. Ann's Mission began in a modest building called a "church house." Bean Crop Is Biggest Ever

With three hundred and fifty acres yet to be harvested as of September 3, Jenkins Foods, Inc. will pick and deliver to their cannery at Frederick, well over three thousand tons of green and wax beans from Garrett County.

Harvesting began on August 11 and should be completed by September 10.

The operation is a cooperative effort with fifty six local growers who started land preparation in early spring with a follow through on a planned planting, cultivating and spraying schedule to assure the cannery of a constant supply of beans as needed at the harvest season.

The cannery normally processes 120 tons of beans daily, (about 8000 bushels).

According to Batty Ridder, Field Representative for Jenkins Foods, the quality of the bean crop is exceptionally good, which is common for Garrett County.

Excessive rain over the past several days is making the picking operation difficult and expensive. Heavy harvesting equipment is not designed for soggy fields and frequent breakdowns and repairs are a continuous operation.

Many farmers in Garrett County are consistently growing profitable bean crops and 1974 is no exception, however there were individual exceptions due to excessive rain in early June which stunted the beans in some fields.

Beans are a garden crop and do need extra attention and care and Jenkins Foods, Inc. is pleased to have growers in the county who will give the project a little extra time, which is the profitable thing for them to do anyway, Mr. Ridder stated.

From Merrill's Bridge

It was a cool April day when we ascended the Savage River from Merrill's Bridge, on the Westernport Road, east of New Germany. Two fishermen were guiding me to the junctions of Black Lick and Blue Lick with their parent stream, while they indulged in some early spring sport, but the water was the swift pouring of a mountain torrent that came on with ferocity, and the temperature made your feet cold inside leather boots when you stepped into its whirls.

It was also a memorable day in April, for John Andrew Merrill, with phenomenal memory and someone beside him to verify his words, was telling us of the old timbering days when his meadow was full of ricks of logs from the woods. Looking at his meadow, one could imagine how many unbuilt houses or mine timbers worth of board feet stood here waiting to go to the yards at Luke as soon as the Savage was swollen enough to take them downstream that far. Easy it is to believe the oldster's words that the whole movement out took a week, and the last log was gone.

Mr. Merrill was 94 at this time of narration, but he told readily of living here away from the main road, of finally going with Wade Broadwater to the county commissioners to request a school so that children could walk two miles instead of five, and often through snow, to be instructed He proudly stated, "Then we got a post office in 1900 and my sister Effie was the first postmistress." He mentioned the activities of Lochiel and Little Hill Lumber Company which operated from Bondtown over these years.

Naturally, we touched upon the aspect of land ownership, as it tells the history of settlement. As Mr. Merrill was the descendant of Charles Broadwater, whose son bought land from a huge old estate, "Turkey Lodge," the land had been deeded to Margaret Merrill and had passed to her son, who was relating these facts.

The years have gone by, with Mr. Merrill's life ended on March 2, 1972, where it began. It was with great surprise that I read in his Frederick sports column Jim Gilford's statement extolling the merits of this great place for trout where he and a companion had waited all day in April and finally captured a beautiful brook trout. Where was it? I gave an irresistible wild whoop — for Merrill's Bridge!

The reporter had the honesty to admit that it was not the catch of the day which made it so valuable, but "the lack of crowds, the clean, clear water, and the gravel bottom; mountain slopes that reach down to the stream banks, and the promise of summertime trout." He can repeat this any day for my ears, for I have stood at Merrill's Bridge to see the high forests and hear the busy water, to view the road winding up to wild old Elbow, with its freedom waving to the crags and deep crevasses hidden in a far-flung forest domain. Delwood Merrill now oversees the farm and its big meadow, and just to the south my eye must find the lordly white pine once considered the tallest of its kind in the state. Stay on, old friend, and be the guardian of Merrill's Bridge. —Tamarack post office one and one-half miles south of the present church and called it Avilton the name was adopted for the district.

The present church traces its origin to Christian Garlitz. He purchased a tract of land March 26, 1804 on Walnut Hill. The following year Mr. Garlitz added a room to his dwelling on Walnut Hill which was to serve as a place of worship for scattered Catholics of that section. The pioneers styled the new building the "Church House," a name still used by older members. The house stood about 150 rods east of the present building.

The first priest who offered the Sacrifice of Mass in the church house was Rev. Henry Myers, of St. Patrick's, Cumberland. April 1, 1859, the farm along with the Church House was sold and Mass was no longer said in the old building. Mass being generally offered in homes of Samuel and Leo McKenzie, south and on the road to Bluelick Run. In 1871 the Rev. Valentine Schmitt, reviewing the McKenzie settlement, found about fifteen Catholic families. They decided to build a church. The property was part of the McKenzie farm and was donated by Jeremiah and his wife, Catherine.

Dedication of the church took place August 29, 1874. A procession was formed at St. Michael's church, Frostburg, and moved down the National road, a distance of twelve miles. The ceremony of dedication was conducted by Rev. Fr. Brennan, Cumberland. At the conclusion, Mass was celebrated for the first time by Rev. Fr. Anselm, Cumberland, assisted by Rev. C. REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR

WHERE DO YOU STAND? If you are registered to vote you can take a stand; however, IF YOU ARE NOT REGISTERED TO VOTE do you realize you have no position; YOU HAVE NO RIGHT TO SPEAK. It's that simple. REGISTER: THEN VOTE for the person of your choice!! Our freedom is precious; a part of it is the choice to vote a person IN (OR OUT)* Call your candidate, ask him what he thinks about your pet subject. Does your candidate have a stand on each subject?

If you are presently enjoying your new tax bill, fine; if not, ask why your net tax has gone up; if it didn't go up this year, check your records over the last four. You'll find that it has gone up, although the present administration has said they didn't raise the rate (what they failed to say is, the base went up — hence higher taxes). I am aware of some tax bills raising 333%! Does that interest you? Check yours, ask your neighbor; talk to your friends.

It's time we got the truth — not half ot if!

Maryland—Sixth District

This regular column serves as another vehicle to keep in touch with all segments of my constituency. It is an open invitation for you to question me on issues, let me assist you with your problems, request information or comment on whatever happens to be on your mind. Letters should be sent to me, c/o U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. 20515. While space is obviously limited for printing all replies, I shall make every effort to answer each person who contacts me.

The following questions were typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks:

I recently read that you sponsored legislation to lower Federal estate tax assessments on farm lands. What happens to this lower tax assessment after an heir dies?

The new family heirs or new owners can apply for the lower assessment as long as the property continued to be substantially devoted to farming, woodland or scenic open spaces.

I understand that Maryland residents on military leave may hunt game without a license. Is this true?

Yes, you may hunt in Maryland during your leave without a license, provided that a copy of your official leave order is in your possession while hunting.

What reduced fee is charged senior citizens entering Maryland State Parks?

The Maryland Department of Natural Resources recently announced earlier this year that citizens 65 and older will be eligible for free admittance to day-use facilities in the State Park system. Currently, 12 of our 35 State Parks charge a $1.50 admission fee including Cunningham Falls, Deep Creek Lake, Gunpowder, Herrington Manor, New Germany and Rocky Gap. Applications for a "Golden Age Pass" are available from the Department of Natural Resources, Tawes Building, Annapolis, or the Regional Estates, Naves Crossroads, Cumberland.

I read with interest your proposal to establish nation-wide physical fitness facilities for adults. By what standard would these facilities be built?

A non-profit Athletic Foundation would oversee all such questions and recommendations. It would, for instance, encourage such projects as the construction of athletic facilities built in accordance with Olympic standards.

What can be done to control our mushrooming Federal budget?

I believe the concept of fiscal discipline must regain a central position in the budget policy and the key to regaining this sense of discipline is in the Congress. Effective budget-making requires a policy for deciding not only whether each proposed outlay is worthwhile but whether it is worthwhile enough to be included within some predetermined spending limit. Congress must decide what total outlays will be and also accept responsibility for the individual expenditures which are the result of their individual program decisions. This is the nonexistent element in our current process and as a result Congress tends to lean toward larger spending than the public may really want or can afford.

Bicentennial Study

Thoughtful citizens are looking at the approach of the Bicentennial year as a time to renew their understanding of the importance of American nationhood. The concept of national sovereignty is sorely in need of exposition to the rising generation of Americans.

The idea of nationhood or nationalism is one of the noble expressions of the human spirit. Patriotism, love of one's country, has resulted in countless brave and unselfish deeds from the time of the Roman Republic to the era of America's Founding Fathers.

Yet the idea of national sovereignty is continually downgraded in our own time. It is shocking to learn, for example, that one religious denomination has a project on "the idolatry of nationalism."

Prof. Henry Paolucci of St. John's University in New York recently pointed out that "despite the fact that 'we the people of the United States' are pledged constitutionally to perfect our nation as a sovereign nation-state, America's reigning intelligentsia is at present carrying on a relentless war against the very concepts of sovereignty and nationhood."

Dr Paolucci cited Prof. Walt Ristow, former adviser to the late President Lyndon B. Johnson, as seeing "an end to nationhood as it has been historically defined." And he quotes Dr. Henry Kissinger as saying in 1965, in his book "Troubled Partnership," that "Institutions based on present concepts of national sovereignty are not enough ... It is not too early to prepare ourselves now for this step beyond the nation state."

This attitude is nothing new. The socialists of this century have been profoundly antagonistic to the concepts of sovereignty and nationhood. Harold Laski, the intellectual godfather of the British Labor Party, wrote in 1941 that at a time when other Englishmen were dying for their country that "it would be a lasting benefit to political science if the whole concept of sovereignty were surrendered."

Even as our nation prepares to celebrate the 200th anniversary of its sovereign independence, antinationalist views are being widely promoted in the United States. For example, Secretary of State Kissinger entered into an interim agreement with Panama that envisions yielding U. S. sovereignty over the Panama Canal Zone. Fortunately, a sizable bloc of senators has indicated firm opposition to this action.

But defense of sovereignty involves more than a determination to retain national real estate. What is of more fundamental importance is that Americans understand that their identity as a people is found in the national spirit and institutions. The ideal of nationhood is the highest ideal for any people with a sense of purpose and value.

Intellectually, Americans must be prepared to resist the fallacious notion of a world state. In such a structure, national identities would be diluted and lost. It is only by understanding the role of the nation as the repository of American culture that the constituted sovereignty of the United States can be maintained in an increasingly rootless world.

College Is Host To Two-Day Workshop

A two-day workshop of the Association of Maryland Community and Junior Colleges Business Officers was held at Garrett Community College on August 15 and 16, with Miss Ethel S. Thayer, Director of Business Services at the College, as hostess. The work-shop opened with a dinner meeting at Point View Inn, McHenry, with several of the officers' wives in attendance.

The cost analysis system recently adopted by Maryland State Board for Community Colleges was the subject of the meeting, as well as discussion of contract negotiations.

Garrett Community College is unique in this group in that Miss Thayer is the only woman member of the Association.

Others attending were Richard Pettingill, Howard Community college; Richard Read, Harford Community college; Harry Hardester, Essex Community college; James Warnock, Ann Arundel Community college; Lester Burger, Hagerstown Junior college; Edmund Loeliger, Charles County Community college; Allen Belus, Prince George's Community College; Herbert Raymond, Cecil Community college; Philip Van Hook, Frederick Community college; Herbert Raymond, Cecil Community college; and Frank Gladsky, Baltimore Community college.

Big Brother Buckles Up

A strong move is underway in Congress to repeal the Federal regulations requiring the interlock seatbelt and buzzer system in new cars. This blatant example of "big brotherism" at its worst has generated more constituent mail than almost any other recent issue, according to some members of Congress.

"I personally believe every driver should use seatbelts and I believe they should be encouraged to do so," said Sen. Thomas Eagleton (D-Mo.) in a recent speech. "But I do not believe that the Federal Government has a right to order an individual, in a matter that concerns only himself, to do something that it thinks is in his best interest."

Eagleton, along with Sen. James Buckley (Cons., R-N.Y.) and 13 other Senators, has introduced a bill which would require auto manufactures to continue offering such equipment, but would leave its purchase by car buyers optional. The bill, already passed by the House, would repeal a regulation in effect less than one year.

The interlock and buzzer system - annoyingly familiar to anyone with a 1974 car - is not the safety panacea that its sponsors claim it to be. There is a potential danger of attempting to restart a stalled car quickly in moving traffic when a belt is not fastened. And, at any rate, a recent study by the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety concluded that only 18 per cent of drivers of buzzer-equipped cars use seatbelts, as compared to 16 per cent without buzzers.

Beyond the questions of the merits of seatbelts, however, is the more important philosophical question involved. In the words of Senator Eagleton, the current regulation "is a direct intrusion on the right of any individual to make a free and responsible judgment, on his own self-protection. . . for every owner of a 1974 car, this buzzer and interlock system is a daily reminder of where the Federal Government has run amok."

Several Minor Accidents Occur Over Weekend

A number of relatively minor motor accidents occurred over the Labor Day weekend around the county, according to State Police records. There were some minor injuries but some heavy vehicle losses.

The driver and two of the three occupants were slightly injured in a one-car wreck on State Route 135 near Deer Park last Saturday afternoon.

Joyce Ellen Duckworth, 17, RD 2 Frostburg, operator of the car, and two of her three passengers, Tammy Lynn Avers, 14, Barton, and JoAnn Duckworth, 17, Frostburg, were all slightly injured. The car was called a total loss.

Joyce Duckworth was driving east on Route 135 when she lost control of the car, which went off onto the right shoulder, hit some guard rails, came back across the road to the left shoulder and struck more guard rails on that side. Trooper Dale K. Williams charged the operator with negligent driving.

The driver of a one-car mishap Sunday afternoon was treated and released from Garrett County Memorial Hospital following the accident on the Friendsville-Hoyes road about four miles west of Hoyes.

Donna Jean Verdini, RD 1, McHenry, was traveling west when a rabbit suddenly crossed in front of the vehicle. The operator swerved sharply and struck an embankment. Tfc. R. L. Rosage investigated.

An accident on the Glendale road late last Saturday night resulted in the total loss of the car but the driver was apparently not injured.

Clyde K. Welch, RD 2, Swanton, was driving west near the State Park road and lost control of the car. The right front wheel dropped onto a low shoulder, then the car ran off the road and overturned. Tfc. Rosage investigated this wreck also.

There were no apparent personal injuries in several other mishaps.

A two-vehicle mishap occurred on the Crellin road near the Old Crellin road last Saturday.

Donald L. Stewart, RD 1, Oakland, and Evelyn M. White, RD 1, Oakland, were traveling west when Stewart attempted to make a left turn and had stopped to allow eastbound traffic to pass. Evelyn White, following, failed to stop and collided with the Stewart car. Tfc. Rosage charged Evelyn White with failing to control speed.

Randal J. Resh, RD 1, Grantsville, and Edward J. Sazensk, Reedsville, W. Va., in a pickup, were traveling east on U.S. Route 40 just east of U.S. Route 219, north, last Saturday morning. Resh was passing a line of cars including the Sazensk car. At that time Sezensk also attempted to move into the left lane and collided with the Resh car. Trooper G. A. Berkebile charged Sazensk with failing to stay in the proper lane.

John W. Holman, III, Bradley Lane, Oakland, was driving west on the Crancsville road near the White Rock road the morning of August 23, in a small truck. Terry G. White, Bruceton Mills, W. Va., was traveling east, when Holman crossed the center of the road and hit the White car head-on. Trooper J. E. Foley charged Holman with failing to keep to the right side of the road.

Curtis R. Clary, Mt. Lake Park, was driving east on Route 135 lsat Saturday morning and attempted to turn left onto Reese Lane and was struck by a car driven by Jerry M. Wolford, Oakland, attempting to pass him. Cpl. S. M. Russell charged Wolford with failing to control speed to avoid a collision and Clary with improper turning.

A two-car accident occurred on Route 135 at State Route 560 just before noon August 21. Charles C. Mason, Mt. Lake Park, was turning left into a private drive from Route 135. Richard L. Butts, Bradley Manor, Oakland, also eastbound, was in the process of passing the Mason car and collided with it and then failed to stop. Trooper C. H. Hinnant charged Butts on two counts, failing to stop after being involved in an accident and improper passing. Mason was charged with operating with expired license.

Walter M. Durigg, Baltimore, was driving west on U.S. Route 40 just east of New Germany road just past noon August 21 when a deer jumped from the side of the road and landed on his windshield. Tpr. Berkebile investigated.

The preciseness of the solar system was understood by people 5,000 years ago.

Rainfall Of Last Friday Helps In August Deficiency

Last Friday's rainfall helped to bring the August total to more near normal with 1.12 inches. September started off wet with rain the first four days. There was a hint of Autumn this morning when the mercury dipped into the upper 30s

Some rain fell every day up until yesterday. There were periods of partial clearing between the rain periods. Labor Day was clear part of the day. Total rainfall for the week amounted to 2.29 inches. This morning was quite foggy.

Temperatures were slightly below normal during the daytime and slightly above for morning lows. Tuesday the mercury dropped during the day as a cold front with rain moved across the area. Readings were in the upper 70s until Tuesday. This morning's low was an official 39 degrees but lower unofficial readings of 36 degrees were reported.

Winds were mostly calm except strong during Friday's rain.

In spite of dry conditions during August rains the last few days brought the month's total to 3.96 inches or only .54 inch below the normal. The heaviest rain day was that of last Friday. Only on eight days was there a .1 inch or more of rain. Thunder storms were noted on three days. There was much fog and haze.

Temperatures averaged three degrees below normal with daytime highs below normal and lows above. Highs averaged 73.3 degrees, 6.3 below normal. The highest readings were 82 degrees on three days, the 2nd, 25th and 27th. It remained below 70 only one day, the 5th. Lows averaged 56.8 degrees or 2.2 above normal. The lowest reading was 47 degrees in the first day of the month. It was 60 degrees or above for lows on nine days.

Winds were mostly calm except during some of the thunder showers.

Statistics are based on information given by Logan Weber, local observer for the National Weather Service.

Grantsville Man Robbed Wednesday

A Grantsville man was forced to lie on the ground and then was robbed of a small amount of cash and miscellaneous items in an incident at the Tasty Freeze store at the west end of Frostburg early Wednesday.

The victim, Wendell Loy Wilburn, state route 495, Grantsville, told Frostburg city police he was approached by four men about 4 a.m. One reportedly said "I have a gun," and forced him to lie on the ground. Mr. Wilburn said he did not see the gun.

Sgt. James Bukalew of the Frostburg Police Department said the men supposedly headed west after the incident. Mr. Wilburn was not harmed.

A suspect was taken into custody Wednesday in Greensburg, Pa. in connection with the robbery. The man was being returned to the Frostburg area by Sgt. Edward Bevans of the Frostburg Police Department.

Enforcement Agent In On Surrender Of Man

Jack Clouser, the "Florida Fox" who eluded pursuers for more than a decade, surrendered August 21 in Tallahassee, Fla., to members of the Florida Department of Criminal Law Enforcement.

One of those to whom the Fox surrendered was Charles Layman, of Aurora, W. Va., who read three outstanding warrants and advised Clouser of his rights, following his surrender.

Layman officially identified Clouser through fingerprints. Clouser says he is innocent of kidnapping, robbery and other charges. He was a former police detective.

Layman is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Layman, of Aurora. He graduated from Bayard High school and West Virginia University in 1957. He has been a special agent for the Law Enforcement bureau for several years.

Government Can Stop Inflation

Americans have expressed near imanimous approval of President Ford's announcement that he intends to tackle inflation as the nation's Number One problem. And, although many have expressed doubt that the Government can do anything very effective to curb inflation, the fact is that the Government does have that power — the very power of Government which has, in fact, fed the fires of inflation.

In a recently published pamphlet written by Wesley H. Hillendahl, Vice President and director of business research for the Bank of Hawaii, the role played by government spending is dramatically illustrated. Statistics show that for many years the combined spending of federal, state and local governments amounted to just over 20 per cent of personal income; in 1947, government spending equalled close to 23 per cent. However, by 1950, the figure had crept to 27.7 per cent; in 1955, to 32.4 per cent, and on up through the years until the last available statistics for 1973, shows that the government spent 43.3 per cent of all personal income in the United States. This means that for over five months of the year, you are working for the government — since government can spend only that which it first takes from people.

To make matters much worse, however, Congress, while voting to spend more and more, has failed to increase taxes to pay for the government's bills. As a result, government has gone further and further into debt; and as government has gone into debt, interest rates have skyrocketed so that in addition to paying taxes on spending, the wage earner is further taxed to pay interest on the national debt.

Ironically, although the self-described "liberals" who have fostered huge government expenses say that they are doing so because of their desire to "help" the poor, the downtrodden, the aged, retired, sick, etc., these are the very people who suffer most from the resulting impact of inflation. Retirement funds, savings, and the modest income of the retired shrink in value, and the standard of living they expected to enjoy vanishes like a cloud of smoke.

Mr. Hillendahl clearly points to the solution. "A first step in this direction (of killing inflation) would be to bring down the rate of growth of combined federal, state and local government spending to parallel the growth of personal income. Having stabilized this relationship long range targets should be established to gradually bring total government spending down to 25 per cent of personal income as an upper limit." Hillendahl then goes on to set forth a step-by-step program to obtain this objective.

Unfortunately, the "liberals" in Congress are, at this moment, proposing that the "way out" of our national financial crisis is to repeat the same error and call for more government spending to 'solve' the problem — such as for example, the proposed new government bureau to be called the "Consumer Protection Agency,' which would cost millions of dollars to operate and will increase the burdens already carried by the business (money producing) segment of our economic system.

Let's hope that President Ford is successful. Let us further hope that the American people will demonstrate sufficient sophistication in economics to demand that the battle against inflation begin right where inflation began: in Washington, D. C.

Listen, Americans!

By DR. GEORGE S. BENSON
President—National Education Program
Searcy, Arkansas

It is impossible to accurately add up all the American tax dollars and privately donated dollars which have been spent to assist communism around the world since 1917 when the Bolsheviks overthrew the Kerensky government of Russia. The price tag just since detente began back in 1972 with the visits of President Nixon to China and Russia is staggering. If we look back to July 8, 1972 and the wheat deal, we add another near billion dollars to the figures we have already talked about in this article. That date, the Commodity Credit Corporation agreed to loan the Soviets $750 million at 6¼ per cent interest to purchase $750 million worth of wheat from private U.S. exporters. This sale of wheat to the Soviets at a subsidized price and interest rate saved the Russians from a famine, allowed them to withstand the pressure to reform their system of collectivization of the farming industry, and cost the American taxpayer some $300 million in subsidies in addition to the tremendous inflationary rise in the cost of food here at home. Then, in a secret agreement on October 18, 1972 the Federal government agreed to loan the Soviets up to $500 million in Export-Import Bank credits at 6 per cent interest before we would require the Soviets to submit financial information reqnired by law for Export-Import Bank transactions. While these loans are supposed to be repaid, the length of the loans and the difference between what the Export-Import Bank pays for its money and the rate at which it made the loans to Russia forces the American taxpayer to cough up the $300 million subsidy for the wheat deal alone.

All of these rope selling sprees by our Federal Government may have resulted in spectacular diplomatic headlines, but when it gets right down to the core of the matter, the so-called diplomatic brilliance we have been reading about for the past few years boils down to the simple fact that we are still trying to buy the friendship of our sworn enemies with the tax dollars of the American people. The statements from Isvestia and from Chou-en-Lai quoted earlier demonstrate what the communists think of our efforts and how ineffective our search for a generation of peace has been. There is no question but that Americans and our diplomatic representatives are earnestly searching for a way to peace. Detente to most Americans means "live and let live." It is clear that to the communists, detente simply means another weapon in their unrelenting war upon the free people of the world. While we earnestly search for peace, they eagerly encourage us to fulfill the prophecy of Stalinist Russia that "in their eagerness to be friends, Americans will spend themselves into bankruptcy."

Since the beginning of 1972, not including the cost of the increase of food and other living expenses brought on by the wheat deal and other inflationary spending the documented costs of loans, wars, investments, and grants in the form of foreign aid in connection with detente has been more than 10 billion dollars. Add to this the additional projected, approved loans of the reported 10 billion dollars for Siberian oil and gas exploration and development and you begin to get the picture of just how much rope America is selling these days.

But, rope selling has been going on since 1917. America bought $66 million worth of rope in the form of food relief to Russia during the post war famine brought on by the refusal of Russian farmers to produce under the communist system of collectivised farming. Herbert Hoover headed up the American Relief Association. In the space of two years, after Lenin made his statement about Americans rushing to take advantage of Russian markets and assisting in our own political suicide, the relief administration fed nearly 11 million Russians daily. The Russian farmers before the war had provided 20 per cent of all the grain consumed on the European continent and Russia had been looked upon as the "bread-basket" of Europe. But, under their communist slave masters, they refused to produce and the best records indicate that under the whiplash of Nikita Kruschev about 7 million Russians were either starved to death or systematically murdered, between 1920 and 1934. But here came America selling rope. We bailed the communists out when they might have been thrown out by the Russian people.

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR is evident among spectators as well as white water racers at Sunday's first international race on Savage River. Here is Vietnamese Kim Short, presently living in Alexandria, Va., who came to watch the race with her boy friend. Hundreds of spectators lined the river banks, while another hundred or two were stuck in a gigantic traffic jam along the narrow Savage River Road.

Correction Please!

With due respect for the patriotic INTENTIONS expressed in the editorial, "A Sad Occasion," from the August 8 issue of The Republican, I feel it is my duty as a responsible American citizen to present some FACTS to the contrary.

The question was asked, "... do his (Nixon's) apparent misdeeds outweigh the good? It would be difficult to convince this writer that they do not." I shall attempt to do so.

According to the writer, some of the "good" accomplishments of the Nixon Administration are an "honorable conclusion to the war," and its recognition "that China represented 25% of the total world population and that we should be on more friendy terms."

Rather than enumerating the domestic disasters that the Nixon Administration has perpetuated, (I will quote James Reston, from his internationally syndicated column of February 3, 1971.)

"The Nixon budget is so complex, so unlike the Nixon of the past, so un-Republican that it defies rational analysis ... The Nixon budget is more planned, has more welfare in it, and has a bigger predicted deficit than any other budget of the century." Nixon's deficit spending is the greatest single cause of the inflation we are now experiencing.

Mr. Nixon did not bring the war to an "honorable conclusion." The Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese received 85% of their war materials from the Soviets and the Soviet bloc nations.

Even the leftist NEW YORK TIMES admitted on October 13, 1966 that President Johnson proposed "removing restrictions on the export of over 400 commodities to the Soviet Union. Among the categories from which items have been selected for export relaxation are ... crude fertilizers, metal ores and scrap, petroleum, gas and derivatives, ... metal products and machinery, scientific and professional instruments." Virtually all these "non-strategic" items have a direct or indirect use in war! Richard Nixon's administration has multiplied aid and trade to the Soviet Communists since then, even to the point of building them the biggest truck plant in the world.

The State Department, under the Nixon Administration has formally recognized the Red Chinese dictatorship which enslaves "25 percent of the total world population." Instead of becoming more "friendly" with Mao and his fellow fascists, we should do everything possible to strangle the dictatorship, and let the people rise up in rebellion for THEIR God-given inalienable rights! How would you like to be imprisoned because of your religious beliefs, and have your brutal captors aided by a "Christian Nation?"

The U. S. Government financed both sides of the Viet Nam War, killed over 50,000 of your sons, and STILL didn't win it! Treason is the reason. Nixon should have been impeached for "high crimes" like treason (giving aid and comfort to the enemy.) The only technicality that makes this impossible is that Vietnam was an undeclared war. Why didn't we declare war and win it? Impeaching Nixon for 'obstruction of justice" is like arresting a single member of a murder conspiracy for stealing peanuts, and letting the rest go free.

If you want to know the real reasons why our country is in trouble, attend the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY MEETING on Tuesday, September 10 at 7:30 P.M. in the Community Room of the First National Bank in Oakland. A film will be shown and informative literature will be available.

To The Republican Voters of Garrett County:

Because I have not been able to meet all our voters in the course of my campaign, I am writing this open letter in the hope that this way I may contact some of our people that I have nat had the pleasure of meeting in person.

As a candidate for County Commissioner, I respectfully solicit your support in the coming Primary Election. I'm a farmer and dairyman and I live in Election District (6) at Sang Run.

My main reason for becoming a candidate is because I'm concerned about our caunty. I sincerely believe that we are threatened with extravagant planning and restrictive controls that would hold back aur progress. If elected, I hope to help bring about a mare sensible approach to our caunty affairs. This would mean the spending of our tax dollars for necessary and needful purposes only. I believe that mast af our people will agree that a sound and sensible county administration is of prime importance ta us all. If I become a County Commissioner, I will not consent ta the expenditure of public monies to create new offices and new jabs that are not needed. I would like ta help dismantle or abolish some of the restrictive controls that we already have. At the some time, I believe some of our needful public services that contribute ta the general welfare af our people should be supported, and perhaps improved.

If nominated by our Republican Voters I promise ta cantinue to campaign vigorausly among all our voters so that we con expect to win a victory at the General Election in November.

To that end I will appreciate your valuable help.

Sincerely,

Samuel J. Thomas

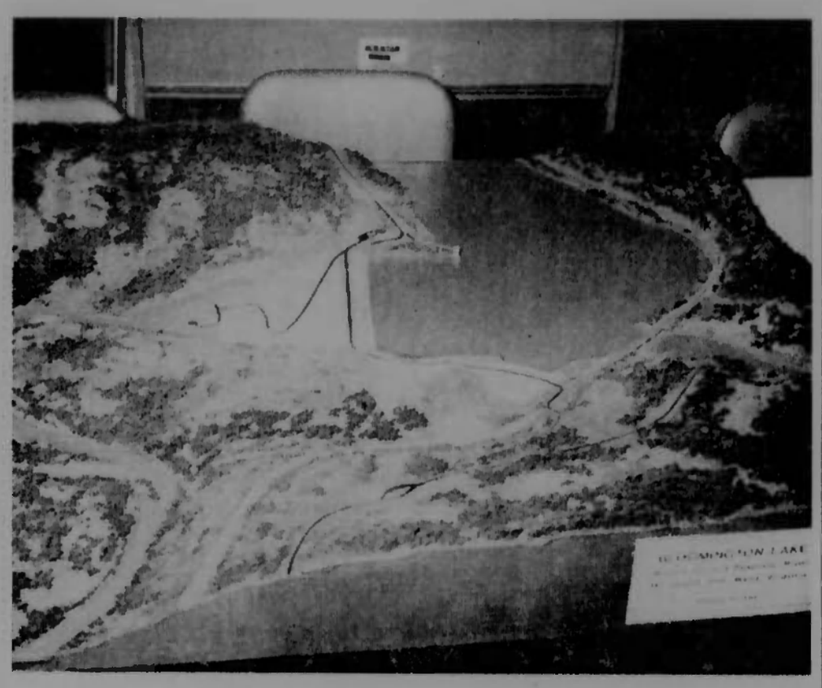
From Mountainside To Mountainside, It's Bloomington Lake



A table-sized Bloomington Lake as it will appear when completed can be found in the office of Robert Craig, area engineer for the Upper Potomac Area Office of the Corps of Engineers. The river will make its way down a new bed to the left foreground. The black lines represent roads to the area, and to the immediate right of the lake is the relocated Western Maryland Railway line. The 300-foot intake tower can be seen in the lake some distance from shore, with the resident damtender and assistant's homes and the maintenance garage nearby.

By Carol Canan

While the town of Bloomington drowses fitfully in the hot August sun, furious and concentrated activity is underway upstream on the North Branch of the Potomac, where work on the huge Bloomington Lake is underway.

The work on the project is proceeding just about on schedule, promising water quality control, reduction of flood damage, water supply and recreation for the area by 1979.

The immensity of the project, which is nestled among steep wooded hillsides some miles above Bloomington, cannot be shown by mere figures on paper. The main part of the dam will stretch from mountainside to mountainside, and is to be the third largest earth and rock-fill structure east of the Mississippi. Cost for the entire project is now estimated to reach $110,000,000.

The Corps of Engineers is overseeing the planning, construction and maintenance of the project.

The Lake, authorized by the Flood Control Act of 1962, will cover 925 acres during normal seasons, spreading to cover 1,184 acres during times of high water. The impoundment itself will stretch over four and one half miles in length at high-water level.

Total acreage required for the entire project now totals 4,473.82 acres, with 2,984.88 acres of that already purchased by the government.

The lake will aid water flow by releasing a reliably steady flow at all times. The dependable flow of the river at Luke will be increased from its present 93 cubic feet per second to 305 cubic feet per second. Cumberland and Keyser will benefit from the lake as well.

Water quality will be achieved by releasing water from the ports in the intake tower as conditions warrant. Since water 60 feet deep or more stratifies according to temperature and other conditions, the water will be chemically monitored each day and the highest quality water will be released through the nearest of the five ports.

The dam will help prevent an estimated 46 percent of the average annual flood damages along the North Branch of the Potomac River.

Recreational facilities will be set up to include picnicking, swimming and boating, and may at some future time include fishing if the water quality of the river should improve enough to support aquatic life. Hiking and hunting will also be featured in the area.

The entire length of the project is 13 miles, since a portion of the Western Maryland Railway is being relocated to the Maryland side of the river for that distance before crossing back into West Virginia and following its present route.

Because of the complexity of the project, the story of the dam is being told in two parts, the first telling of the relocations, of people as well as railroad ties and rails.

Next week's story will detail the construction involved in the actual building of the dam, part two of the two-phase job.

Moving the Railroad

The relocations of the railway which is still following its course along the W. Va. side of the Potomac was divided into two units, and contracts let to two contracting companies who divided up the 13 miles of work which needed done. Work actually began in 1971, and S. J. Groves and Sons, Camp Hill, Pa., has now completed unit one of the job including three bridges which had to be constructed. Cost of unit one was $15,675,000. Inspection by government and railroad officials was held August 20.

The contract on unit 2 of the relocation, held by Green Construction Company, Des Moines, Iowa, is 75 percent finished, with completion scheduled in April 1975. Cost of this phase from Elk Lick Run to the West Virginia border is $9,784,241.

The first of the three bridges, subcontracted for construction to the American Bridge Company by S. J. Groves and Sons, crosses the Potomac just above Bloomington. It consists of two 125-foot spans, making it 250 feet in length.

The structure is 25 feet above the river.

Laurel Run bridge has four 125-foot spans, and rises 137 feet from bedrock to the top of the rail.

Elk Lick is crossed by the largest span, rising 183 feet above bedrock, and having six 125-foot girders (750 feet long).

To carve out the new route, the workmen made huge cuts across the mountainsides, often having to blast through solid rock, not counting the problems encountered in going through an old stone quarry and some old strip mines.

Material from these cuts is put elsewhere, sometimes stored for use in construction of the dam itself, sometimes used to smooth out and improve the landscape. The latter so-called "spoil areas" are then seeded down and grass soon covers all unsightly spots.

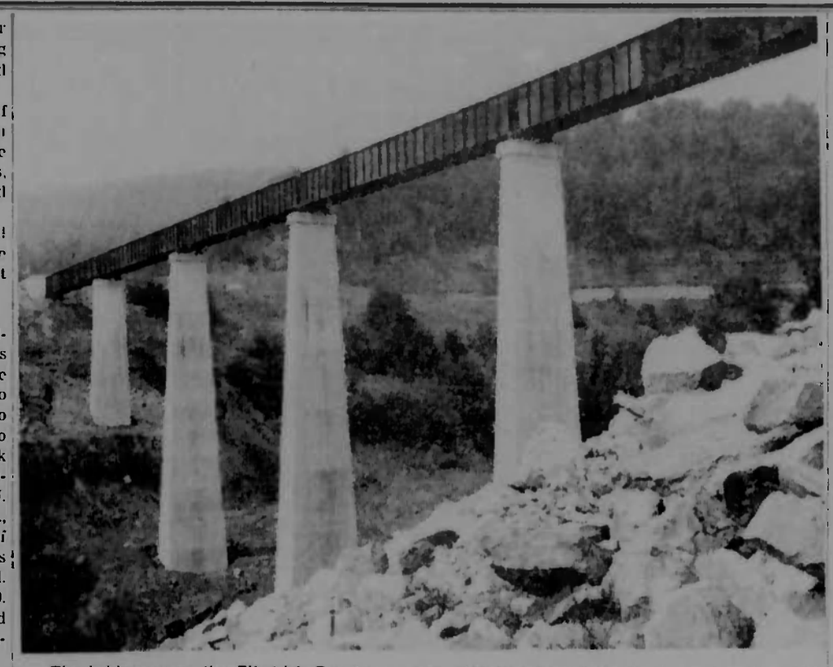
In addition to moving the railway line, some relocation of the power lines was contracted to Potomac Edison, so that the lines will directly cross the new railway bed.

Cost of this part of the project is $39,270. A relatively minor relocation is also required of telephone lines in the area.

The People— Where Did They Go, And How?

Forty families have had to be moved from the area because of the dam, and at present 30 have already made plans to leave. The remaining families are waiting for homes to be completed before they can leave.

Total amount paid for real estate purchases to date is $1,294,175. Places other than homes which were also affected by the dam included one barber shop, two general stores, one service station, one chain saw repair shop, one sawmill and lumber company, two post offices (Shaw and Barnum), two churches, two cemeteries and one active coal loading facility (Tipple). Of these, only the lumber company is planning to relocate and establish in another area.



The bridge across the Elk Lick Run towers some 183 feet from bedrock. Water from the dam will back up so that trains will run across the water when the tracks are completely relocated.

Land acquistion, handled by Kenneth E. Ridder, realty specialist for the Bloomington Lake Project, is 67 percent completed.

There are several steps involved in the actual acquisition of the land, including title investigations, appraisals by a professional appraiser using an amount based on the fair market value, before an offer is made to the landowners for the purchase of the property.

"Offer to Sell Real Property" forms are signed by the landowner and, along with the negotiator's report, which is a summary of the actions taken to reach agreement, are submitted to the Real Estate Division, who is the contracting officer. When the offer is accepted, a check is ordered and a deed prepared for signature by the landowner.

Transfer of the property to the government can be made when the owner can pass clear title. The owner may, in most cases, retain possession until any growing crops are harvested, and until replacement housing is found. He may also, if he wishes, retain salvage rights to buildings not specifically needed by the government.

However, if agreement cannot be reached through negotiation, the government may exercise its right of "Eminent Domain" which means it can take any property it needs as long as it is for public use and just compensation, as determined by the courts, is paid.

Owners must be paid, or money deposited for him in the court, before the land can be taken.

Until January 1971, owners of land needed for a government project received only the amount paid for his property, plus assistance on his actual moving expenses.

Then Congress enacted a law providing more assistance to those required to move due to the acquisition of their permanent residence. Now included, besides moving costs, is a supplemental payment of the amount, if any, which will equal the reasonable cost of a comparable decent, safe and sanitary dwelling adequate to the needs of his family.

Relocation benefits paid to date, above the purchase prices of the properties, amount to $227,587.00.

People who have had to move from the Lake area have settled in various parts of the area, such as New Creek, Keyser, Elk Garden, and also one family each to Crellin, Gralton, Corinth, and Fellowsville.

Moving the Dead

Relocating of the cemeteries is underway now, "undertaken" by Big Wheel, Inc., Angier, N. C., at the Davis-Wilson cemetery across from Barnum, and the Kitzmiller cemetery at Shaw.

A total of forty gravesites have been dug, but already several more remains have been excavated and extra sites will need to be dug.

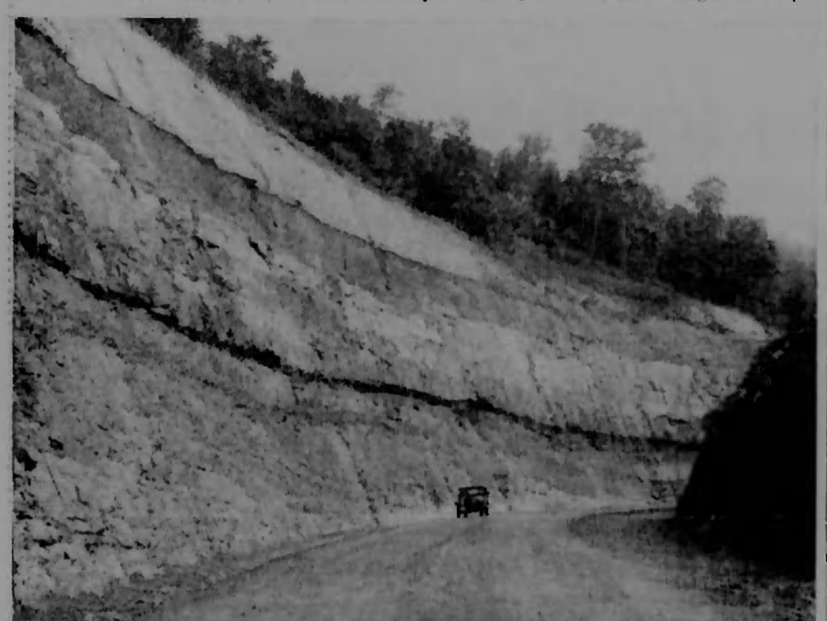
Seeding of a "spoil" area was accomplished with the help of much hay and a handy machine which mixes grass seed, fertilizer and a little tar for stability.



Massive cuts through stone and coal seams have been necessary in preparing a new bed for the Western Maryland. An Army jeep, such as those used by Kenneth E. Ridder, realty specialist, is dwarfed by the sheer rock walls.

The haze of a humid August day nearly obscures the view of the first, and smallest, of three bridges built for the Western Maryland by contractors. This bridge crosses the Potomac downstream from Masteller Coal Company, which has been in continuous operation since 1903.

The bridge across Laurel Run is the second largest of the trio constructed for the relocated Western Maryland line. This span is 137 feet from bedrock to the top of the rail, and is 500 feet long.

SENSING THE NEWS

Empire Of Bureaucrats

The struggle to restore reason and economy to governmental processes goes on in the various state legislatures as well as in the Congress. Every legislature has a number of senators and representatives who are deeply concerned about the mushrooming size and soaring cost of government, who are profoundly alarmed at the build-up of the armies of bureaucrats who live at the expense of the taxpayers.

Usually, these concerned legislators receive little attention beyond their own states. They go unheard on the national level.

Recently, I came across a tremendously impressive statement by a member of the Arkansas House of Representatives, Rep. William R. Nicholson. He was speaking to a local civic club Normally, his statement of concern for taxpayers wouldn't be heard beyond his community and his state. But I was so impressed by his remarks that I present them in this space today in an effort to make his concern known to a wider audience.

Rep. Nicholson spoke of the difficult times facing our nation, and then he added that "one segment of the nation continues business as usual.

"That is the empire of bureaucrats and government at all levels. Pay raises are given people who are on government payrolls and people who live off of taxes while private industry is laying off its workers.

"The energy crisis has caused widespread layoffs by industry, as various shortages are felt, plant after plant curtails its operations or closes down completely, the crisis takes its toll all across American business and industry.

"Hundreds of thousands of workers suddenly find themselves without jobs and with no means of livelihood or of supporting their families. They look about them and see that not everyone is so badly affected by the crisis and that government and bureaucracy continues to grow at an ever increasing cost to the ever decreasing few.

"It is true there are certain hardships and discomforts being shared by all, but there is that one large segment in which there are no layoffs, no short time and no pay cuts. Those on public payrolls have been spared, many employees of the government and those on government subsistence are being given substantial increases at the very time when the average taxpayer is worrying about fuel and material shortages forcing them out of gainful employment or out of business."

Rep. Nicholson is properly indignant about the growth of bureaucracies even as the economy deteriorates. He is right in saying that "the taxpayer should demand the same belt-tightening from the government that those in government are demanding of the taxpayer."

For the time being there are more people supporting government than are being supported by it. But unless the growth of bureaucracies and public programs is curbed, dependent citizens may outnumber all others. The nation needs more legislators like Rep. Nicholson who will present these fundamental facts.

SPECIMEN BALLOT

For Primary Election Tuesday, September 10, 1974

ATTENTION, VOTERS!

Familiarize yourself with this diagram and directions for operating the voting machine.
It will assist you in voting and save time on election day.

VOTER ABOUT TO CLOSE CURTAIN

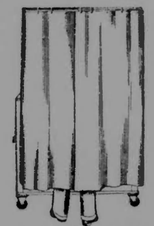
Each candidate's voting pointer is located just above his name; a voting pointer must be turned down over the name of each candidate for whom you wish to vote, and left down.

The machine is so arranged that you cannot turn down more than the proper number of voting pointers for each office. You cannot spoil your ballot by voting for too many candidates.

In an office to which more than one candidate is to be voted for you can turn down the proper number of voting pointers, but no more, even if one is directly under the other.

No votes are registered until the Red operating lever is moved to open the curtain. You may make as many changes as you desire while the operating lever is at the right side.

No one will know how you have voted, because the movement of the Red operating lever returns the voted voting pointers to their unvoted position before the curtain begins to open.



CURTAIN CLOSED VOTER VOTING

DIRECTIONS FOR VOTING

1. Move the Red Operating Lever to the right. (till bell rings)
2. Turn down a Voting Pointer over the name of each candidate you wish to vote for. LEAVE THE POINTERS DOWN.
3. Move the Red Operating Lever to the Left.

Linahan-Stahl Nuptials Held

Miss Jacquelyn M. Stahl became the bride of William R. Linahan on June 22 at St. Stanislaus Catholic Church in Philadelphia. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Michael Garvin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Stahl, 917 Seton Drive. The Stahls were formerr residents of Grantsville and Mrs. Nora Stahl, Grantsville, is her paternal grandmother.

The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John B. Linahan, Upper Darby, Pa.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a gown of white silk peau-de-soie with a full-length train. A double row of pearls trimmed the neckline, empire waist and cuffs of the long, fitted sleeves. A double veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of lace and pearls. She carried yellow tea roses and stephanotis. Her sister, Mrs. Mark Buser, was her matron on honor. Brother J. Bartholomew Schlachter was best man.

A reception followed in the auditorium of LaSalle College High School, Philadelphia.

The bride is a graduate of Bishop Walsh High School and Allegany Community College. She is employed as an executive secretary for the John P. Nessin, Jr. Company, Glenside, Pa. Mr. Linahan is a graduate of LaSalle College and is employed as a probation officer in Philadelphia.

Following a trip to Virginia Beach, Va., the couple established residence at English Village Apartments, North Wales, Pa.

School Bells Are Ringing

Classes have now started and there may be a few changes in the curriculum, but back-to-school clothes are taking a new trend. Happily, the new looks are machine washable and dryable for the most part, geared to playgronnd activity as well as scholarly efforts.

Easy-care dresses have been adapted to have a sportswear look. Styles are loose fitting silhouette, raglan sleeves or shirt-tail hems. Sweater dresses and cotton, corduroy and blends in one-piece designs are constructed in a layered look.

Skirts are back with the flip skirt and suspender style taking the fashion lead. Pants are still important; belts, buttons and other details make them dressier. Tops are big items with shirts, sweaters and smocks coordinated to match bottoms of choice.

Colors are dusty and classic shades of green, blue and red. Patchwork and calico prints, smocks with eyelet trim are bright and feminine.

For the boys, solid color pants have returned in navy, green, brown and rust. The pants are uncuffed with a modified flare and even some straight leg styles.

Detailing is important—double and triple contrast stitching, simple belted back, all-out Western looks with pocket treatments, piping and yokes. Suds-loving corduroy is the principal fabric for Western coordinates, which include jackets and outershirts. Shirts are yoked, embroidered, trimmed with piping, contrast buttons and stitching and gripper snaps in printed denim, gingham checks and chambray.

A significant trend is the teaming of the classic look with the Western feeling. For example, an outershirt and pants in tweed effects can be coordinated with a Western yoke shirt. The new outershirts provide a semi-suit look that can be dressy or casual depending on fabric and styling.

Sweaters and sweater vests add to the picture, often in classic V-neck and heather tones. Other shirts are printed in neat patterns with florals and art-deco influences.

Friendsville Gets Help With Water

Civil Defense came to the aid of Friendsville, which has been having a limited water supply problem since the beginning of construction of a new water and sewage system.

With the opening of the public school this week, town officials realized there was going to be a need for at least 2,000 gallons of water daily for use by pupils and teachers.

Civil Defense officials notified the Board of Commissioners that a plan had been developed to alleviate the critical water shortage in the community.

Col. E. B. Keefe, Civil Defense area coordinator for Maryland, and George Como, County CD director, notified the commissioners that equipment from the CD emergency stockpile in Mechanicsburg, Pa., would be obtained for use in alleviating the problem.

They said Friendsville would operate the equipment and bear the cost.

The plan will be in effect throughout the school term, a spokesman said. It had been reported that Friendsville's water supply was cut off at 4 o'clock p.m., and turned on again at 6 a.m., while the new system is under construction.

Nolan-Garrett Vows Exchanged

Miss Jane Best Garrett became the bride of Charles Patrick Nolan on Saturday, July 27.

The double ring ceremony was performed during the Nuptial Mass offered by the Rev. Kennard F. Muller at St. Peter the Apostle Catholic Church in Oakland. Patrick J. Garrett, II, brother of the bride, served as Lector during the Mass. Mrs. Muriel Crane provided the processional and recessional music, and the selections during the Mass were played and sung by Miss Caren Carney and Miss Mary Ann Carter.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Garrett, Sr., of Deer Park. Mr. Nolan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Nolan, of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a long gown of embroidered taffeta with a chapel train. The bodice was accented by a simple scoop neckline. Empire waistline and elbow-length bell sleeves. The tiered floor-length veil of organza fell from a bow headpiece which matched the gown. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white, yellow and orange daisies highlighted by ferns and baby's breath. The gown and veil were designed and fashioned by the bride, as were the gowns and headpieces of the attendants.

Mrs. Sheila Reams, of Niantic, Connecticut, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Denise Davis, of Phoenix, Arizona, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid.

Ross Callahan, of Albuquerque, was best man. Ushers were Michael A. Garrett, II, Chicago, Illinois, and Robert B. Garrett, Jr., Baltimore, brothers of the bride.

A reception followed in the church social center. The Misses Mary Ann Carter, Caren Carney and Margaret Brown assisted at the refreshments table; Miss Margaret Mance and Mrs. Barbara Booz registered guests and attended gifts.

For travel to Montreal, Canada, the bride wore a yellow dress with green and white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Southern High School in Oakland, and Saint Joseph College in Emmitsburg. She will be employed at the First National Bank and Trust of Western Maryland in Cumberland.

A graduate of Highland High School in Albuquerque, Mr. Nolan served four years in the United States Marine Corps and is presently a student at Allegany Community College in Cumberland.

The couple resides at 226½ North Lee Street in Cumberland.

Out-of-town guests were from Albuquerque, Phoenix, Chicago, Baltimore, Washington, D. C., Cumberland and Cranford, New Jersey.

When man's aspirations are filled with religious faith and a sense of spiritual mission, he rises to heights of unselfish dedication. But when he keeps his sights lowered to greedy goals, he often becomes entangled in his own materialistic web.

Bring your family to church. That's where we learn with confidence to lift our eyes to the realities that are above the worldly.

As we train a youngster to look to God we are unlocking the potential of a soul.

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

THE MEANING OF 'CHOSEN'

Lesson for September 8, 1974

Background Scriptures: Genesis 12 through 17.
Devotional Reading: Genesis 15:1-16.

There's an old piece of doggerel that goes like this:

We are God's chosen few;
All others will be damned;
There is no place in Heaven for you;
We can't have Heaven crammed.

Rev. Althouse

Many people have comforted themselves with the conviction that they were "God's chosen few." It is understandable — if not accurate — because at the heart of the Old Testament there is the concept of a "chosen people." Modified, this concept reaches on into the New Testament and Christianity itself.

"God Said: . . . Go!"

The concept of being "chosen," as far as the Bible is concerned, is valid, but what does it mean?

The story of Abraham furnishes us with some insight in attempting to answer that question. First of all, we find that in being "chosen" by God, Abraham received "a call" from him. In the Bible "a call" means a direct challenge from God to do something. In Genesis 12, for example, we read: 'Now the Lord said to Abram, 'Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you" (12:1). Again and again in the Bible we find God making this "call" to men whom he has chosen: Moses, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Samuel, Elijah, and others. Each time, as with Abraham, God comes with a challenge to perform some mission or task for the Lord.

The "call" God gives Abraham is no small request: he is to leave behind his homeland for a country utterly alien to him. Put yourself in Abram's shoes; wouldn't you find this first aspect of his call rather unnerving? Maybe being "chosen" isn't as great as we thought it might be?

"... I Will Bless You"

Yet, along with the disturbing "call" there is also a promise: "I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you . . ." (12:2). God always equips those who embark on his challenging missions with a promise of some kind. The challenge is always conditional on the promise, just as the promise is dependent upon a response to the challenge.

Unfortunately, too many people have looked only upon one side of the covenant agreement. They have ignored the challenge and focused upon the promises. They have thought in terms of what "is coming to them" as "God's chosen," and ignored what is expected of those whom God chooses and blesses. They have concentrated upon the "honor" to the exclusion of the "responsibility."

To be sure, there is a sense of "honor" in being "chosen" by God, but his purpose in calling a person is much more a matter of the task that is to be performed. That's what it means to be "chosen."

Open Letter . . .

To The People of Garrett County and Legislative District 1-A Primary election day is here and your voting is of PRIMARY IMPORTANCE. In recent days we had a murder and apparent robbery in Garrett County and in recent weeks we have had several breaking and entering crimes. We have the peace disturbed by speeding autos and trucks with squealing tires and loud exhausts. Our Maryland State Police highway patrolmen are understaffed in Garrett County. I will support every effort to increase the resident staff of our Maryland State Police Officers. I will continue to work for better building and paving of state roads in our District. I will oppose any general tax increase but I will support a more thrifty spending program for our tax dollar.

I respectfully ask for your VOTE and SUPPORT in the Primary Election on Tuesday, September 10, 1974. Pull LEVER 7-F.

Thank You

American Freedom and Christian Responsibility

By Rev. W. H. Leake, Deer Park, Md.

The Bible in Proverbs 29:2 declares that "When the Righteous are in authority, the People rejoice: But when the wicked beareth rule the people mourn." This week in our community we have seen the cruelty of the lawless element displayed openly in robbery, assault, and murder. I feel that the crime wave sweeping our nation and community is a direct result of the apathy, procrastination and indifference of the American people and especially the Christians who have confined their beliefs to their own little "bubble" world and have failed to be salt and light in Community and Political life. Light exposes evil and salt keeps down corruption.

I confess that I have stood aside and watched while the once greatest, most civilized, and most humane nation in history was being converted into a jungle.

I have stood aside and watched while the greatest goodwill the world has ever seen, between multiple ethnic groups within one nation was being deliberately changed into suspicion, dissension, and hatred.

I have stood aside and watched while this "land of the free and home of the brave" was being conditioned by traitors to seek peace at any price — even at the price of independence and freedom.

I have stood aside and watched while our courts encouraged and our press glorified the beasts of crime who have spread riots, vandalism, robbery, and murder across our land.

I have stood aside and watched while our colleges have been taken over by misguided children with no slightest understanding of the civilization they have inherited, or of the evil, or of the evil forces by which they have been duped.

I have stood aside and watched while our whole great system of public education has been turned into a propaganda agency for revolution and a spawning ground for drug addiction, sex abuse, and crime.

I have stood aside and watched while meretricious scoundrels, using our television media, our motion picture screens, our newsstands, and all other available means, have contrived to bring about a breakdown of morality that is reducing millions of Americans to the level of lower animals.

I have stood aside and watched while the three basic human loyalties — loyalty to God, loyalty to country, and loyalty to family — were being destroyed by evil forces which now permeate every segment of American life.

AND I HAVE HAD ENOUGH. I AM ONLY ONE PERSON, BUT I SHALL NO LONGER REFUSE "TO GET INVOLVED." WHAT ABOUT YOU? HOW MUCH LONGER WILL YOU STAND ASIDE?

REMEMBER: TUESDAY, THE 10th is Election Day, VOTE and PLEASE VOTE for men that will promote Righteous Causes.

Capitol Comment

By Charles McC Mathias
U.S. Senator

The Constitution and National Emergencies

Those of us who have been elected to public office or appointed to positions of public trust have a special duty to protect our Constitution and the liberty of all citizens. The momentous march of events of the past four decades has weakened our constitutional processes and our liberty is now less secure.

It is clear in looking back over 40 years that the guardians of the Constitution have not been as vigilant as the times required. The heavy toll of three long bloody and costly wars, a catastrophic economic depression and the tears and tensions that marked the nuclear age and its diplomatic twin, the cold war, has caused serious imbalances in our system of open democratic government.

We, in the Congress, are witness to the destructive processes of war, crises and emergencies. It is clear that we in the Congress through neglect, lack of foresight and understanding, have contributed measurably to the weakening of our constitutional government.

But we in the Congress have the means to take the steps necessary to strengthen the constitutional processes that give purpose and substance to our liberties.

The Constitution assigns legislative responsibility solely to the Congress. Yet, for the last 40 years in most of the important areas of public policy, many laws were conceived and actually written by the Executive branch.

As a consequence, the Congress, in far too many instances exercises only a limited modifying role, and in a few extreme cases exercises a kind of reverse veto by enacting amendments which occasionally negate Executive law-making initiatives.

Contrary to the authority delegated by the Constitution, the law-making roles of the Congress and the Executive have been reversed. The effects of this failure by the Congress to make the law in the full sense intended by the founding fathers has in part contributed to the national disasters of our time.

The National Emergencies Act that I have introduced with Sen. Frank Church seeks to restore the legislative structure to its original Constitutional dimension to provide for effective government during times of war or severe crisis. We seek to assure that each of the branches can use its respective powers, and carry out its assigned responsibilities under the Constitution in order to contribute to a common purpose of national security.

The proposed legislation will provide the Executive with the flexibility and effective power to meet any foreseeable future emergency, but to do so within established constitutional guidelines and constitutional procedures.

In 1816, Thomas Jefferson wrote of his growing concern that political power not fall into the hands of one man or a determined group of just a few men.

It is with Jefferson's admonition in mind that I hope the Senate will exercise "the function it is competent to"—to make the law and enact this proposal to strengthen our government of laws.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

Sometimes I wonder whether I actually am hearing what I hear on television.

Just this evening there was an impassioned address by Mr. Saxbe who cited statistics showing the terrible increase in crime. He said something about a huge increase in police forces which he hoped would not be necessary in the fight against crime. At almost the same time, in Pittsburgh, three young thugs held up a restaurant where one of the two or three customers present shot and killed one or possibly two of the felons.

Now, as thanks for this action, the coroner is placing charges of MURDER against this man. This is the poor fellow's reward for helping to cut down crime. And yet police officials and others in authority are continually complaining that the witnesses to a crime refuse to become involved.

I suppose what the man in Pittsburgh should have done was not shoot the poor robber, but rather whisper to him: "Dear me, sir, you know you really shouldn't do that." Whereupon the fellow no doubt would have shot him dead and, if he ever were caught, probably would have been charged only with involuntary manslaughter.

All thanks to the Supreme Court for its many decisions, beginning with the Roosevelt administration and faithfully carried on down to the present, in favor of Communists, murderers and other assorted felons.

Very truly yours,
Robert B. Garrett

Upole, Oscar Dale Upole, Harold H. Upole, Lulu Upole Weeks and Woodrow P. Upole. The object of said Bill of Complaint is to obtain a Decree for the sale of the real estate mentioned in said Bill of Complaint.

The Bill recites:

That Alta J. Upole was, during her lifetime, seized and possessed of the lands or parcels of land situate in Election District No. 10, Garrett County, Maryland, the first containing 74.6 acres and the second containing 25 acres, excepting, however the minerals underlying said 74.6 acre tract. That George T. Upole husband of the said Alta J. Upole, was seized and possessed of said property during his lifetime. The said George T. Upole departed this life intestate and title to said property became vested in his widow, the said Alta J. Upole, and 10 children, to-wit: Russell G. Upole, Catherine Upole Sines, Oscar Dale Upole, Albert Lee Upole, Harold H. Upole Lulu Upole Weeks, Woodrow P. Upole, Helen J. Smith, Virginia Upole Leonard and Della Upole Green; that by deed dated May 12, 1956, and recorded in Liber No. 197, folio 241, one of the Land Records of Garrett County, Maryland, said 10 children of George T. Upole and their respective spouses conveyed to the said Alta J. Upole an undivided 2/3 interest in and to said property, certified copy of said deed being filed herewith and prayed to be taken as a part hereof; that while so seized and possessed with said property the said Alta J. Upole departed this life testate and by the terms of her Last Will and Testament recorded in Wills Liber H, folio 122, one of the Wills Records of Garrett County, Maryland, she devised said real estate to seven of her said children, to-wit: Russell G. Upole, Oscar Dale Upole, Harold H. Upole, Lulu Weeks, Woodrow P. Upole, Albert Lee Upole and Virginia Leonard, certified copy of said Last Will and Testament being filed herewith and prayed to be taken as a part hereof; that by deed dated June 18, 1974, and recorded in Liber No. 350, folio 195, one of the said Land Records, the said Albert Lee Upole conveyed his undivided 1/7 interest in and to said property to the Plaintiff, said deed being attached hereto and prayed to be taken as a part hereof; that by deed dated July 16, 1974, and recorded in Liber No. 350, folio 562, one of the said Land Records, the said Virginia Leonard conveyed her undivided 1/7 interest in and to said property to the Plaintiff, said deed being attached hereto and prayed to be taken as a part hereof; that said real estate is not susceptible of partition in kind and it would be for the best interest of all the parties hereto that said real estate be sold and the proceeds divided among those according to their respective interests, that the Bill of Complaint then prays that a Decree may passed for the sale of the real estate mentioned in said Bill of Complaint and that the proceeds arising from such sale be distributed among those entitled thereto according to their respective interests.

WHEREFORE, it is ordered by the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland, this 14th day of August, 1974, that the Plaintiff cause a copy of this Order to be inserted in a newspaper published in Garrett County, Maryland, once a week for four successive weeks before the 14th day of September, 1974, giving notice to the said Lulu Upole Weeks of the object and substance of the Bill of Complaint and warning her to show cause, if any she may have, on or before the 15th day of October, 1974, why a Decree should not be passed as prayed.

Evangelist Ron Wahlrobe
Brings His Spirit-Filled Ministry To
SAND FLAT ASSEMBLY OF GOD
"THE HAPPY CHURCH"
Route 219 — Six Miles North of Oakland, Maryland
Rev. Al Weesner, Pastar

*Something About Ron . . .
Ron Wahlrobe is a man who has been places and done things — and he's still doing them — under the powerful anointing of the Holy Spirit. At twenty-two, he was teaching college level psychology. Pittsburgh called him to host the Steel Estate, a position that tested his God-given executive and supervisory talents.

'God's Dealing in His Life . . .
In Ron, there's a keen intelligence and a compassion for helping people. The Lord dealt with him deeply while he was in the throes of a trying illness. Medical science reached its limit and God took over. Through faithful prayer, Ron was fully delivered. Most dramatic in Ron's healing was when God touched Ron's broken back instantly making the bones whole. Through these experiences and trials, God has shaped a deeply understanding young man — one who knows all about the failures of the establishment, but who knows that permanent remedies are found only in the Lord.

*Powerful preaching . . .
Spirit-filled, intense preaching marks Rev. Ron Wahlrobe's ministry. He's walking in step with the present, extended Charismatic renewal. Come often during his visit and exult in the Presence of God. Come expecting a big change in your life — you won't be disappointed.

THE REPUBLICAN

VOLUME 98 | OAKLAND, GARRETT COUNTY, MD. SEPTEMBER 12, 1974 | PER COPY 15c | NUMBER 28

No Way . . .

Over a generation ago, freedom from want was incorporated in the charter of the American welfare state. The federal government assumed obligations to its citizens that could only be maintained through endless government deficit financing and inflation.

Now, freedom from want threatens to become a cruel hoax unless inflation can be controlled.

A plain speaking editorial in a McGraw-Hill publication asserts, "There is no easy path that will take us where we want to go. The easy paths lead backward or nowhere. There is no way to produce less and have more. No way to sit on our aspirations and expect things to take care of themselves . . . there is only a productive or a non-productive way. The productive way calls for all of us to join together, not in perfect harmony, not in ultimate brotherhood or in some high-flown crusade. But in the simple recognition that we all — business, Labor, government and private citizens have a job to do."

It is not too difficult — if we would just do it.

Gore Edges Hogan In GOP Governor Spot

Louise Gore edged toward an upset victory Tuesday night in the Republican gubernatorial primary as Gov. Marvin Mandel, running behind his 1970 showing, won the Democratic nomination.

Miss Gore, hoping to become the first woman to win a statewide election in Maryland, led Rep. Lawrence Hogan 27,372 to 22,825 in unofficial returns from 1,034 of the state's 1,642 polling places. Miss Gore is a former state senator from Montgomery county.

In Garrett County Miss Gore led Hogan 951 to 822 in unofficial returns.

Mandel led his nearest competitor, former Court of Appeals Judge Wilson K. Barnes, 133,882 to 56,915. Morgan Amalmo had 10,737 votes while Howard Gates trailed with 9,784.

Miss Gore, 49, entered the GOP primary several months before Hogan announced during the summer he would seek the State House rather than run for almost certain re-election to the House seat he held for six years.

Scout Fund Drive Set September 18

The Deep Creek District Potomac Council B.S.A. has two major campaigns scheduled for this month. The Annual Fund Drive will be Wednesday evening, September 18, starting at 6:30 p.m. for all of Garrett County, Bayard and Gormania, West Virginia. At that time, volunteer workers will be seeking to raise enough money to continue the scouting program in this area for another year. This year's quota for the District is $2,895. Financial Chairman Maurice Brookhart who is coordinating the fund drive said that the budget is only a very slight increase over last year, even though inflationary pressures and the increased number of units and boys in scouting would dictate otherwise.

On Wednesday evening, September 23, Deep Creek District will hold its 2nd School Night for Scouting in most area schools. This is the biggest recruiting drive of the year to bring scouting to more boys. Boys who are 8 years old or have completed the 2nd grade may join the Cub Scouts. Boys who are 11 years old or have completed the 5th grade can sign up to be a scout. Boys and their parents who want to get into scouting or even those who aren't sure and want to know what scouting is all about are being urged to attend.

The overall coordinator of the program is Pat Fischetti, Chairman of the Deep Creek District, and all scouting units will take part in covering all of the area schools.

Among the problems encountered the first week were minor transportation problems, non-resident tuition cases, and schedule adjustments mainly in the high schools. A malfunctioning deep freeze also caused some federal food commodities spoilage. William Watson, supervisor of cafeterias, upon the advice of the County Health department, had to dump quantities of orange juice, butter, turkey and ground beef. He has been assured by the State Department of Education that they would replace the losses with commodities of equal value.

Country Club Reports Theft Last Night

The Oakland Country Club was broken into sometime last night, and the thieves got away with an as yet undetermined amount of food, alcoholic beverages and money.

The theft was reported to the sheriff's office at 6:51 a.m., and members of the town police force are still investigating.

Entry into the building was evidently made through a window broken in the storeroom, then by breaking another window which opened into the dining room.

OPEN LINE

By

Congressman Goodloe Byron
Maryland—Sixth District

This regular column serves as another vehicle to keep in touch with all segments of my constituency. It is an open invitation for you to discuss with me issues, let me assist you with your problems, request information or comment on whatever happens to be on your mind. Letters should be sent to me, c/o U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. 20515. While space is obviously limited for publishing all replies, I shall make every effort to answer each person who contacts me.

The following questions were typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks:

Are congressional committee meetings normally open to the public? How about the Interstate & Foreign Commerce Committee on which you serve?

Only ten per cent of all House Committees and Subcommittee meetings were closed to the public in 1973—compared to 44 per cent the previous year. For your information over 92 per cent of the House Commerce Committees meetings were open in 1973.

Please send me the hunting regulations for the State of Maryland.

Citizens interested in State hunting and fishing laws should write for a copy of the 1974 Guide to Hunting & Trapping in Maryland. The booklet is available from the Department of Natural Resources, Wildlife Administration, Tawes State Office Building, Annapolis 21401.

Why must a veteran requiring nursing home care first be hospitalized under VA auspices?

Under the Veterans' Health Care Expansion Act of 1-73 this is no longer true. The new law permits the furnishing of nursing home care, in the case of service-connected veterans requiring such care for service-connected disabilities, upon determination of need by a VA doctor.

Where can I obtain copies of bills before Congress?

Copies of specific bills may be ordered through my office here in Washington.

I understand that the Library of Congress offers surplus books free to schools in the U.S.? Please comment on this.

The Library of Congress maintains at all times a collection of surplus books which are available to educational institutions and public bodies in the United States. Authorized representatives of schools and libraries may make free selections from this donation collection. The publications are available for selection at any time, Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:15 p.m., in the Exchange and Gift Division, Room 4016, Annex Building. Interested institutions may contact the Library of Congress for additional information.

Where can I obtain a copy of the latest environmental impact report on offshore oil drilling?

The Interior Department has just issued a comprehensive report titled, "Outer Continental Shelf Resource Development Safety: A Review of Technology and Regulations for the Systematic Minimization of Environmental Intrusion from Petroleum Products." The report is available from the Marine Board, National Academy of Engineering, 2101 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20418.

Supervisor Explains Assessment Raises

Assessment raised? What do you do if your assessment is increased? Is it worthwhile to protest to the local assessment office? These questions were asked this week by Jerry Moyer, supervisor of assessments. And he proceeded to give some answers.

The market value of the property is the determining factor, he pointed out. The property owners must realize that in all counties of Maryland the assessment is intended to be fixed at fifty percent of the current market value. If assessment is one-half of the value the chances of challenging the computations are slight, he said. But if assessment is higher than one-half the market value, then the owner may have an excellent chance of having the figure reduced.

He continued.

But how does one determine market value? The best way is to use the same method the assessor uses—to look at recent sales of comparable properties. If a house like yours sells for $40,000 it is reasonable to expect that your house could be sold for a similar amount. Market value is not the amount ynu paid for ynur house ten years ago, but that amount it would bring today.

The appeal procedure is simple. There is no fee nnr is there a need for an attorney, although one may he utilized if the owner deems it desirable. The assessor who appraised your home is available at the local assessment office to answer any questions the homeowner may have regarding his appraisal. Assessors should have well documented data to support his appraisal decisions. Nevertheless, the subject of market value often becomes over-shadowed by the taxes that are to be paid on the real estate.

Every assessor can be empathetic with the property owner when taxes seem to be the major issue, but it is the sole duty of the assessor to establish and maintain fair and equitable asessments on all real estate, Moyer emphaslzed.

Being human, the assessnr occasionally makes mistakes. He can revise assessments that are erroneous and do not indicate an accurate level of value. On the other hand, the assessor is powerless to revise those assessments that are attacked solely on basis of "taxes being too high."

If after a meeting with one nf them, a property owner still feels he is being wrongly or unfairly assessed he may appeal to the enunty's Property Tax Assessment Appeal Board.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Your article on St. Ann's Church at Avilton brought back many happy associations with this church and the spontaneous square dancing we once enjoyed in St. Ann's Hall, complete with singing calls and men who took great pride in their skills with guitar and banjo. It is the only place in the state where I have ever seen the dancing figure, "Mow the Wheat," my favorite.

If any reader has a clue to the real origin of the name Avilton, I should like to hear from him at West Friendship, Maryland 21794. Besides a reference to the old English for "town by a river" I cannot find any other authentic tracing for the wnrd.

Yours truly,
(Mrs.) Margaret M. Harless

Guide Lines For History, Tour Discussed at Meet

Guide lines for a local history and a historical tour in October were among the items taken up at a meeting of the Garrett County Bi-Centenial Committee last Sunday at the home of Judge and Mrs. Lewis R. Jones.

The committee worked out a set of guide lines for a history of Garrett County. Local communities will compile a history of that area by December 1975. These local histories will then be combined into a composite history of the county. This will be done under a committee or by a historian.

A historical tour will be conducted in October by the Garrett County Historical Society and the Bi-Centennial Committee, of the ten sites previously selected by the Tri-County Council. These sites are: Stone House; Casselman Bridge; Casselman Hotel; Fuller-Baker Log House; Braddock Walking Trail, Swallow Falls State Park, Deer Park Hotel site, Cleveland Cottage; Oakland B & O Station; Garrett County Historical Society Museum; and the B & O Viaduct at Bloomington.

The next meeting will be held Sunday, October 20, at Garrett Community College. At this time the mayor, or his representative, from each community is to be present.

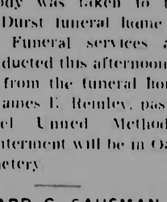
American Freedom and Christian Responsibility



By
Rev. W. H. Leake, Deer Park, Md.

COMMUNIST AMERICA MUST IT BE! About 15 years ago I read a book by that title that opened my eyes to the danger of socialism, "a first cousin" to communism. Since then I have seen our beloved nation being subverted and converted from a Constitutional Republic to a Socialistic Democracy.

The result of much legislation and Supreme Court decrees in the last 15 years have been nothing less than a direct attack against God and His Word. To list just a few — Prayer and Bible put out of our school systems; Abortion on demand "Could be better titled as Murder on Demand"; Both houses of Congress passing the "so Called" Equal Rights Amendment, but, THANK GOD, the state legislators have not been as stupid and gullible (some have, but not two-thirds); Aide and Trade to the Anti-God, Anti-Christ, Anti-Bible, Anti-Christian, Anti Freedom Communist Conspiracy in Russia, China, and Around the World, Outlawing of Capital Punishment for Capital Crimes.

We could go on and on but buying space to print it becomes very expensive, so in closing let me mention just a couple more items. In our own state, Baltimore City in fact, we have seen Communism in action, the city police paying for youngsters to rat on their own parents if they owned a gun. Thank God for the Preacher, parents, coal miners and others who are leading the fight against the corrupt books being issued to their children in West Virginia. We pledge to do the same thing in our county if this type book shows up in our school system. A (no doubt) socialistic or Communistic Judge (don't kid yourself, we have lots of them on the bench in America today) has threatened to call in Federal Marshals to force the miners back to work, but I pray they don't go until those filthy books are destroyed. Notice if you will, unions can strike for all manner of things and no judge orders in Federal Marshals, but let it be for righteous cause and the Marshals are called in. THAT IS MISUSING THE STATE POWER. Hitler called it gustapo, Russia calls it the KGB, China, the Red Guard; etc.

I should like to close this article today with a quote from a man I very much revere, Patrick Henry, "IS LIFE SO DEAR, OR PEACE SO SWEET, AS TO BE PURCHASED AT THE PRICE OF CHAINS AND SLAVERY? FORBID IT, ALMIGHTY GOD! I KNOW NOT WHAT COURSE OTHERS MAY TAKE. BUT AS FOR ME, GIVE ME LIBERTY OR GIVE ME DEATH!"

A steady comeback by the Rams, however, developed in the second half. Constant rain and glutenous mud foiled pass attempts, but Southern finally won 14 to 12. Commissioners Review County Problems, Projects Reviewing problems and projects of county-wide interest occupied this week's business meeting of the County Commissioners.

They reviewed the schedule for the county Water and Sewage Master plan up-date for July, 1975. Tom Junes, assistant director of the Garrett County Development Curporation; and Col. J. Haig Jackson, administrative engineer to the Sanitary Commission, reviewed comments from the state department of health and mental hygiene and presented a proposed outline of the up-date to comply with state requirements. Compliance with the state requirements is mandatory for the county to receive state funds for water and sewage.

Sheriff John F. Browning discussed a law enforcement and administration of justice grant from the state with respect to purchasing marked Sheriff department vehicles. According to terms of the grant three of the six vehicles recently purchased must be used in the towns of Kitzmiller, Grantsville and Friendsville. The three other vehicles will be attached to the sheriff's department in Oakland.

The three commissioners met with the Grand Jury to answer questions on county affairs, a regular custom in September and March.

Commissioners also met with Gary Mullich, director of the county transportation system, to be brought up to date on progress at the state level to help get the proposed bus systems off the ground. It is now anticipated that the system will be ready to go into operation late in 1974

They announced that the commercial inventory and manufacturing inventory tax had been reduced by ten percent as part of a phase-out of that tax, for the second straight year. Referred to as the personal property tax, this phase-out will take some four more years until it is eliminated completely.

Northern Defeated In Grid Opener

The Northern High Huskies began their football season on a losing note Saturday, dropping a 22 to 8 decision at Shade Township, Pa.

The Huskies scored first when Dave Bender picked up a Shade fumble and raced 60 yards for a touchdown. Buddy Fauber passed to Ronnie Teats for the two-point conversion.

Shade deadlocked the score near the end of the fust quarter when Greg Miller plunged in from the three-yard line. Jack Smith ran for the two points.

Norm Deist gave Shade a 11-8 lead at halftime when he ran 20 yards with a blocked punt. The run for the extra point failed. Miller scored his second T D in the fourth quarter on a two-yard plunge and Randy Yoder ran for the conversion.

Both teams kept the ball on the ground most of the game. Northern tried only three passes and Shade six times.

Shade had 10 first downs to 8 for Northern. Each team had one pass intercepted. Northern gained a total of 113 yards compared to 193 for Shade.

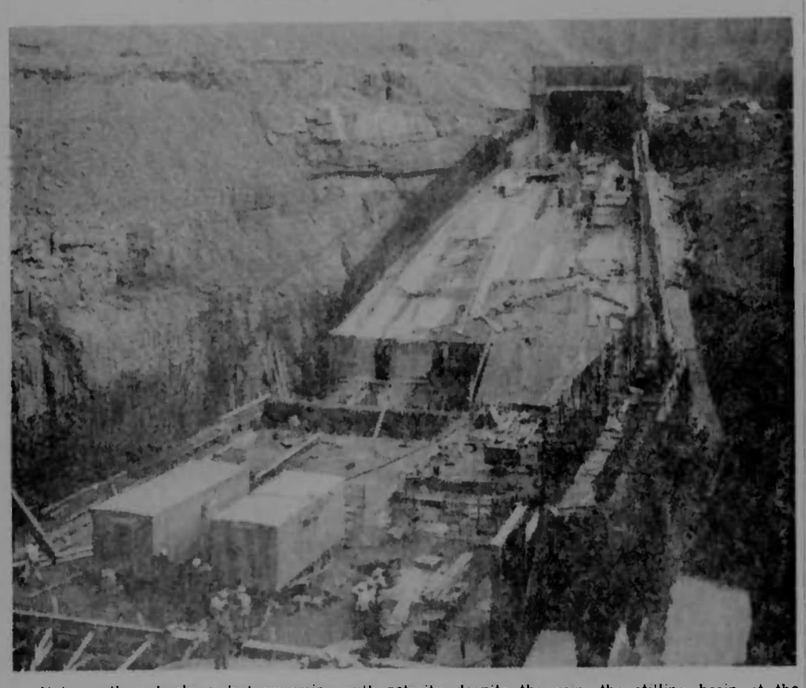
OAKLAND, MARYLAND

From Mountainside to Mountainside, It's Bloomingtan Lake



Not exactly a beehive, but swarming with activity despite the rain, the stilling basin at the far end of the outlet works is taking definite shape. Slabs in the foreground contain baffleblocks to slow the velocity of the water before it empties into the riverbed. This "cut and cover" conduit section will be backfilled with material from the tunnel to ensure slope stability.

By Carol Canan

The Potomac, unheeding of the changes in store for it, flows mindlessly, endlessly on its way to the ocean, while men and their machines labor daily to carve a dam and lake from its upper reaches.

The left, or Maryland side, of the dam abutment will rest in this excavation being carved from the mountainside.

The construction of the dam itself has barely begun, although the skeleton is formed. Plans now call for advertisements for construction of the main, actual part of the dam to be let in early 1975.

At the end of 1975, contracts for construction of the spillway, dikes and Maryland overlook will be let.

The dam, which will be 109 feet higher than its nearest counterpart, Savage River Dam, will be based on a "curtain" of grouting right across the chosen valley. Holes will be drilled to a depth of 200 feet and a mixture of sand and cement poured in, to ensure dam stability.

The west side of the dam, to be under water, will have a random rock base topped by selected rock to the peak height of 296 feet, 1,014 feet above sea level. On the east slope of the facility, only select rock will be used.

The dam will be 2,130 feet in length, and pyramids from the maximum width of 1,640 feet at the base to 25 feet at the top. The structure will contain an estimated 9,875,000 cubic yards of earth and rock. It will be possible to drive across the dam when it is completed.

The controlled spillway, located on the left abutment, will have a crest length of 168 feet and will have four tainter gates, each 32 feet high and 42 feet long.

The real control of the water flow in the Potomac downstream will be the intake tower, 300 feet high, which will be constructed so that it is mostly underwater in the lake. There will be five intake ports at various levels, which will lean, naturally, to the outlet works, a tunnel 16.33 feet in diameter which burrows 1,620 feet through the mountain and comes out on the east slope. The tunnel, which makes a 30-degree turn, is contracted to DiMambro-Majestic of Detroit, and was holed through in March of this year.

At the east end of the tunnel is a stilling basin, where slabs and battleblocks still (or slow) the velocity of the water before it is released into the riverbed. There will be a concrete hinwall to help keep material from clogging the outlet. Rock from the tunnel will be used to backfill the sides of the outlet

Two hydraulic slide gates will control the flow of water through the tunnel.

On the left (Maryland) abutment, a rolled earth and rockfill dike, 900 feet long, 90 feet high will be constructed across a low area between hills to augment the main dam.

Daily maintenance will be provided around the clock by the reservoir manager and assistant, who will live in homes constructed for them right by the lake. A maintenance garage for equipment will also be built by the lake.

Two overlooks, one on each side of the dam, will also be constructed, along with roadways to picnic sites, restroom and camping facilities. The West Virginia overlook will be reached by a new connecting road from Route 46. The Maryland overlook will be reached from Route 135 by a county road to Bethel.

Contracts Already Let

To date, contracts which have been let include phase one of the outlet works to L. G. DeFelice, North Haven, Conn., for $6,167,396, which is 73 percent completed. Completion is scheduled by October 3 of this year.

Work on the valley floor and left abutment grouting at a cost of $798,713 has been undertaken by B. H. Mott Inc., Huntington, W. Va., and work is over five percent completed.

Unit three of the railway relocation, which calls for the building of a spur line up Three Forks Run, is over seven percent completed by L. G. DeFelice, with the total contract cost, $3,248,502.

Relocation of the railway facilities, such as ties, ballast and rails, will be done by Western Maryland next year, at a cost to the Corps of Engineers of $2,832,000.

The Corps is nothing if not thorough, and in 1976, the county's Bicentennial year, work on clearing up the valley floor and dam site will begin. This includes cleaning up everything from junked cars to downed trees, abandoned houses to sawdust piles.

Before actual construction was begun on the dam, a test quarry was dug in the area, and findings here helped with dam design. Two quarries were dug, and tests were run on the different materials found. Rock of various sizes and types was compacted by different types of machinery, trenches were dug, and all materials and findings analyzed to determine the best available for use in the dam. The selection of dam type was also influenced by quarry findings.

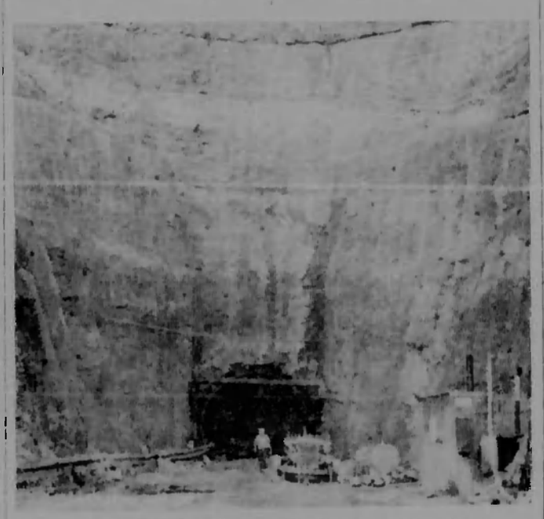
At the main offices, where Area Engineer for the Upper Potomac Robert Craig has his headquarters, there is a large building used for storage. Here are hundreds of samples of rock, cored out during the relocation of the railway and from the quarry and mountainsides, so that contractors can get first-hand information, or actual looks if necessary, at the types of material they would be working with (against?) if they contracted some portion of dam work.

All such samples are boxed and labeled and on file in the building. There is also a master log, for reference.

The economy of the area is being given a boost by the dam, since the government requires that approximately 80 percent of the labor on such jobs be from local union halls.

So there you have it, an encapsulated version of a tremendous project which will affect the future of the eastern part of the county and the Potomac River for the rest of time. It is a tremendous project, a grand tribute to man's ability to figure out ways to better Nature's plan to the benefit of mankind . . . .

Six houses in Shaw, W. Va. used to be located on this site now holding machinery to make concrete for the stilling basin. The DuBrook Concrete Company, DuBois, Pa., has subcontracted to supply the concrete.



Here in the base of the West Virginia mountain is the tunnel, an important part of the outlet works. The 16.33-foot high tunnel is lined with concrete 18 inches thick and winds its way underground for 1,620 feet before emptying into the stilling basin on the east slope of the mountain. The entire outlet works, from the intake tower to stilling basin, will cover 2,196 feet.

The dam abutment on the West Virginia side will slope more gradually uphill, but still not enough to make an easy hike for the average walker.

Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, army chief of staff, died Sept. 4 of lung cancer. He was 59.

Evangelist Ron Wahlrobe

Brings His Spirit-Filled Ministry To

SAND FLAT ASSEMBLY OF GOD

"THE HAPPY CHURCH"

Route 219 — Six Miles North of Oakland, Maryland

Rev. Al Weesner, Pastor

*Something About Ron ...
Ron Wahlrobe is a man who has been places and done things — and he's still doing them — under the powerful anointing of the Holy Spirit. At twenty-two, he was teaching college level psychology. Pittsburgh called him to host the Steel Estate, a position that tested his God-given executive and supervisory talents.

*God's Dealing in His Life ...
In Ron, there's a keen intelligence and a compassion for helping people. The Lord dealt with him deeply while he was in the throes of a trying illness. Medical science reached its limit and God took over. Through faithful prayer, Ron was fully delivered. Most dramatic in Ron's healing was when God touched Ron's broken back instantly making the bones whole. Through these experiences and trials, God has shaped a deeply understanding young man — one who knows all about the failures of the establishment, but who knows that permanent remedies are found only in the Lord.

*Powerful preaching ...
Spirit-filled, intense preaching marks Rev. Ron Wahlrobe's ministry. He's walking in step with the present, extended Charismatic renewal. Come often during his visit and exult in the Presence of God. Come expecting a big change in your life — you won't be disappointed.

Housing Counseling Service Set Up For Garrett Residents

A housing counseling service has been established in this county for all residents having problems concerning housing. The program made available through the Appalachian Regional Commission and the Maryland Department of Economic and Community Development is aimed toward solving some of the serious housing problems in the county. The service is a part of the Garrett County Development Corporation. J. Haig Jackson announced that a housing counselor, J. Cameron McClure, is presently on duty in order to assist any resident having problems related to housing.

Jackson, executive director of the Development Corporation, noted "a recent study of the county's housing picture showed that an adequate supply of housing for all income levels is one of our critical unmet needs." Jackson added that "it is hoped that as a result of this program some of the deficiencies presently occurring in the housing of the county can be solved." It was pointed out that loans exist from various state and federal agencies for the purpose of constructing and rehabilitating homes for Garrett County residents." One of the more important functions of this counseling service is to fit the individual case with a specific loan program, and then carry the loan application through the various steps.

Those having problems related to housing may make use of the counseling service by calling 334-4200 or by stopping in at 202 Alder Street in the McLaughlin Building, Oakland.

Bertz-Sherwood Nuptials Held

Miss Rebecca Ann Sherwood became the bride of Steven Howard Bertz on Saturday August 24, at St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Oakland. The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Lawrence Sherwood, pastor, the bride's father.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sherwood, Oakland. Mr. Bertz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bertz, Fond du Lac, Wisconsin.

Given in marriage by her brother, John Sherwood, the bride wore a floor length gown of white peau-de-crystal styled with princess lines. Crochet type lace edged the wide cuffs of the full bishop sleeves and trimmed the front of the gown from small stand up collar to hem. Matching lace covered the camelot cap holding the finger tip veil. The bride carried a single pink rose.

Miss Judith Sherwood, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Deborah Bertz, sister of the groom, and Miss Martha Sherwood, sister of the bride. They wore matching pink gowns and each carried a single white rose.

Richard Bertz, brother of the groom, was best man.

Music for the wedding was provided by Mrs. Merritt Feather who played a selection of traditional wedding music and accompanied Richard A. Morris, soloist.

A reception followed in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Guests were registered by Miss Mary Sherwood, sister of the bride. Punch was served by Mrs. Mabel Bertz and Mrs. Pearl Kurzynski, grandmothers of the groom. Mrs. Elisabeth Thayer cut and served the wedding cake.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were from Wisconsin, Virginia, West Virginia, and Maryland.

Mrs. Bertz is a graduate of West Virginia Wesleyan College and has done graduate work at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. Mr. Bertz, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Madison, is a graduate student in the Department of Chemistry at Harvard University.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertz will be living at 407 Broadway Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Rams Rally, Nose Out Valley 14-12

Ed Wolfe crashed over from the two yard line and Kevin Liller tacked on the all important two point conversion as the Southern Rams came from behind in the final period to defeat Valley High of Lonaconing 14 to 12.

John Rodeheaver scored the first Ram touchdown in the second period just before the half ended on a two yard run.

The Black Knights scored on the first play from scrimmage in the contest from 6a yards and added a second in the same period score before losing in the final half.

The game made a successful debut for head coach Jim Miers of Southern.

Valley started out as if it would win in a breeze. Tom Wilt dashed the 65 yards for a TD and later in the same quarter the Knights went on 58-yard march which was capped by Steve Smith going over from the two. Both times the two-point conversion attempts, passes from Tim Davis, intended for Danny Duncan, failed.

The Knights ditched their passing game after completing only one of four for 12 yards in the rain.

Statistics following the game were impossible, as the rain muddled the figures so that they were unreadable.

The Rams will tackle Beall high of Frostburg this Friday, September 13, at 8 o'clock, at Frostburg.

KNOW WHAT SENDS MY PRESSURE UP?

It's thinking about that $250 seat—the one that was empty last Sunday.

Haven't you figured out what your seat at church is worth? Say the building—at yesterday's prices — cost roughly a hundred thousand. And there are four hundred seats. That's an investment of $250 per seat.

That's little enough for a seat occupied regularly by a person eager to worship the Lord. (Men have given their lives for the Gospel.)

But to preach Christ to an empty seat—$250 is a lot of investment in the man who isn't there!

I realize my kind of arithmetic isn't likely to save souls. But it would do a lot for my blood pressure if just a few people in every congregation across the land would start thinking about that empty seat the way I do!

I don't mean the money. Just the fact that spiritual opportunities are here to be claimed . . . and only when wasted do they cost us dearly.

AFTER RESCUE

Lesson for September 15, 1974

Background Scripture: Exodus 3; 14; 19.
Devotional Reading: Psalms 46

Less than a month ago I rented a little Fiat and retraced some of the steps of the people of Israel on their exodus from Egypt to the Promised Land. All alone in the midst of this bleak, yet dramatically beautiful landscape, I tried to envision the tribes of Israel following Moses on the slender thread of God's promise. Viewing this vast, inhospitable expanse, I could understand why many of the people of Israel began to wonder whether they had not escaped "from the frying pan into the fire!"

Rev. Althouse

First, God Saves!

Yet, whenever hope seemed to burn low in their hearts, God would speak through Moses to remind them that he is a God who rescues his people according to his promise. Oppressed in Egypt, the people of Israel were rescued by this God who was not indifferent to their plight. "I have seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters . . ." (Exodus 3:7).

Still, it was not enough for him to see their affliction, he also did something about it: ". . . I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians . . ." (3:8). God did not send the Israelites a sympathy card or note of regret: he rescued them! Later, when in the midst of the wilderness of Sinai, they were losing hope once again, God reminded them: "You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings . . . (19:4). On the basis of what he had already done for them, they were to continue trusting him and his promises. Thus was established the conviction that the God of Israel was a God who rescued and saved his people.

God's "Now Therefore . . ."

We tend to think of grace as exclusively a New Testament idea about God. Yet here in the early days of the Old Testament we find a clear-cut example of grace: first, God saves his people, then he asks for something in response. In other words, God could have made his act of rescue conditional on the behavior of the people of Israel: if they lived up to certain standards (the Ten Commandments), then he would reward them with his act of rescue. They would have to earn their rescue by their own accomplishments.

Instead, however, God gives them their rescue with no strings attached: he saves them before he asks anything of them. It is only after they have been saved from the Egyptians that God brings to them the Ten Commandments. Instead of recruiting them because they have proven themselves to be "good," they are asked now to be "good" because they have been saved.

So it is with the concept of grace in the New Testament. Paul puts it simply: ". . . while we were yet sinners Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8). It is by his goodness, not ours, that we are rescued.

Yet, after the rescue, then God comes with his "Now therefore . . ."

THE BACK TO SCHOOL BLUES

At this time of year this not so mysterious malady seems to sweep the younger generation like an epidemic. The symptoms are classic and readily recognized by parents and teachers alike. A tendency to oversleep in the mornings, inability to concentrate on lessons and a general feeling of despair are a few of the more noticeable ones.

Medical science has not yet found a cure for the "Back to School Blues" and the likelihood is it will always show up at summer's end. We do not stock any products that will help but we do sympathize.

Five Generations Gather

Five generations gathered at the home of Mrs. Viola Shahan, Rosedale, Oakland, last Thursday, September 5, for a family reunion. In the front row are the grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Calhoun, with Rebecca Watts, of Aurora, a great great granddaughter. In the back, left to right are Mrs. Dayton (Dorothy) Alexander, Aurora; granddaughter of Mrs. Calhoun; Wayne (Rebecca) Watts, great granddaughter; and Mrs. Viola Shahan, the daughter, of Rosedale.

Tremendous Tomato Resembles Beanstalk

Mr and Mrs. Ben Thorn's tomato plant is like Jack's beanstalk in that it keeps growing skyward, right outside their window. The plant, of the pear-tomato variety, is already 5½ feet tall, and nearly that wide.

Thus far, all of the 45 or more tomatoes are still green, (about the color of Mrs. Thorn's thumb). She raised this and several sister plants from seed and set them outside their apartment on Buena Vista Drive, Oakland, in May. All the other plants, including one just beside the giant, are more normal sized. The giant is now up over their front window.

Mrs. Thorn, an animal lover who raises poodles and parakeets, says she didn't do anything special to the big plant, in fact it doesn't get as much sunlight as the others, and she never fed it special fertilizers.

Nevertheless, already she's had to stake it five times and now she's wondering if it will ever stop growing.

Youth Football League Under Way

The Oakland Raiders and the Terra Alta Dolphins posted victories last Sunday as the new season began for the Youth Football league. The Oakland Raiders won 40 to 0 over the Friendsville Steelers and the Terra Alta Dolphins won over the Grantsville Colts 20 to 0

Halfback Jim Simms scored four touchdowns plus an extra point to lead the Raiders offense. He also rushed for 117 yards and caught two passes for 43 yards, including a 29-yard touchdown pass from Jerry Watson, quarterback. Allan Sweitzer and John Hayhurst also snored TDs for the Raiders. Jerry Watson had two touchdown passes.

In the second contest Terra Alta used the strong running performance of Mike Rogers to win over Grantsville. Rogers gained 112 yards, including TD runs of 13 and 30 yards. Quarterback Gary Mersing hurled a 14-yard touchdown pass to Rob Frazee to complete the scoring.

The Dolphins, who are playing for the first time in the youth league, gained 122 yards. Next Sunday's action will pit the Oakland Raiders against the Terra Alta Dolphins, and the Friendsville Steelers will meet last year's champions, the Oakland Jets. Games will be played on the Northern High football field, starting at 2:30.

Dilemma For Ford . . .

Pete Hartley, Morgantown, former agricultural representative for the Baltimore and Ohio, now retired, made a commentary on pardoning that is worthy of reprinting and gives a different slant from most column writers.

He said: "A dilemma is defined as 'A necessary choice between equally undesirable alternatives.'

"Being president and trying to be a practicing Christian placed Gerry Ford on the horn of a dilemma in regard to the case of former president Nixon. President Ford had sworn to uphold the Constitution which plainly states in Article 2, Section 2, in reference to the powers of the President, that 'he shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offenses against the United States.'

"Being a practicing Christian he had committed himself to follow the precepts of that faith as set forth in the Holy Bible, particularly the New Testament. Here the exhortations on the virtues of mercy are numerous. Jesus Christ in the Sermon on the Mount, said: 'Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.' In Proverbs: 'He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness and honour.' Psalm 25: 'All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.' James: 'For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy: and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.' Luke: 'Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father is also merciful.' Micah: 'and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?'

"Gerry Ford knew full well that if he issued a pardon for Richard Nixon he would bring down upon his head the wrath of indignation and condemnation by his acquaintances — both friend and foe. He also knew his own conscience and knew it would be with him every minute of every day throughout his life.

"The action he took would seem to indicate that he chose the route that would bring his peace of mind rather than the plaudits of his fellow men. It indicates to me a quality in the man that we have not seen in the White House very often — probably not since Abraham Lincoln."

Autumn Glory Parade Plans Being Finalized

Plans for the 7th annual Autumn Glory Festival parade, which will be held Saturday, October 12, at 1:30 p.m., in Oakland, are now being finalized, it was revealed by Guy William Hinebaugh, parade chairman.

Many units are again anticipated for this year's parade, Mr. Hinebaugh said. A number of bands, marching units from the tri-state area will be appearing in this year's parade for the first time.

The number of float entries has been unusually low, Mr. Hinebaugh said and he was requesting this week for any organization, club or group wishing to sponsor a float to contact festival headquarters, 222 East Alder street, in Oakland.

The Autumn Glory festival parade, one of the highlights of the annual celebration, attracts thousands of people to the area. Inquiries concerning this year's festival and interest in the event are running far ahead of previous years, according to Brian Schofield, director of the Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion council.

Springs Festival To Take Place On October 4 And 5

The seventeenth annual Springs Folk Festival, known as the Dutch Mountain Festival, will be held this year on Friday and Saturday, October 4 and 5, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m., at Springs, Pa., in southern Somerset county.

Craftsmen in various media, will demonstrate in the new crafts building and on the festival grounds. Plans call for rail splitting, timber hewing, beam dressing, hollowing out wooden troughs with an adze, splitting shingle blocks with a froe and mallet, making whistles and maple sap spiles, blacksmithing, weaving baskets, and other features.

Traditionally a two-horse treadmill will be operating and grain flails will be used to thresh grain like their ancestors. Again there will be hay rides, pony rides. An ox team will be on the grounds. Teams will be making apple butter and boiling maple syrup to produce the "spotza" for which the area is well known. A cider press will be turning out fresh apple-cider. Home baked bread will come from the pioneer kitchen.

Craftsmen will be demonstrating early and contemporary crafts. Artists will be working in wood, stone, metal and fabrics. There will be doll making, basket and cloth weaving, and rug making.

The museum, on the festival grounds since 1964, will be open to display the early artifacts of the Casselman Valley including a rock and fossil collection.

Russell Fluharty, well known dulcimer player, will be present with his 135-year old instrument. Paul Crane, mountain singer and banjo player, will accompany him.

A Pennsylvania Dutch sausage dinner will be served continuously from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Mt. Lodge 40, Fraternal Order of Police, has an idyllic 34-acre setting in northeastern Garrett County. At the annual outing for retarded and crippled youngsters from the area, many activities were held, from boat riding under the craftsmanship of Trooper Larry Tracy, to listening to the music provided by two of Cpl. Richard Graham's sons. Pony rides, a K-9 dog exhibition, and a chance to talk through the loudspeaker and ring the bell on a 1934 Ford fire truck completed the day. The truck is the property of Matthew Skidmore, Midlothian. This was the second such outing for these children planned by the Lodge, which also sponsors one fund raising event yearly to help the disadvantaged. Improvements at the Lodge site include remodeling of the building seen here, leveling off parking lots, and construction of a huge pavilion for picnics and round and square dancing.

GC College Enrollment Shows Increase

Garrett Community College at Mellenry showed an overall enrollment increase of 31 percent for the Fall semester, according to Dr. Luther G. Shaw, President.

"At this date last year our total enrollment, including full and part-time students, was 225 in credit courses. This year it stands at 301," said Dr. Shaw, "and there is some indication it will continue to increase through the Fall."

A further breakdown shows 82 new full-time students and 65 returning full-time students, 78 new part-time students enrolled with 76 returning part-time students.

In addition, the Community Services and Adult Basic Education, which is registering students this week, will enroll an estimated 200 in non-credit courses bringing the total enrollment to over 500!

"We are pleased with the increased enrollment this Fall," said Dr. Shaw, "particularly since college enrollments have decreased nationally."

Herbert G. Harman Elected School Board President

At the regular meeting of the Garrett County Board of Education on September 12, Herbert G. Harman was elected president to complete the 1974-75 school year, replacing William M. Goldsborough who resigned after being appointed to the Maryland State Board of Education.

In other action, the Board approved the maintenance program guidelines for 1974-75 and the long-range building program for fiscal 1976. These documents will now be presented to the County Commissioners for their approval prior to their submission to the Maryland Interagency Committee for School Construction.

The Board also approved the building usage policy which will be implemented by principals in the local schools. The policy encourages the public use of school buildings, but the Board noted that with severe energy problems it may become necessary to put heat buildings when in use by the public and possibly charges may need to be made to cover heating and lighting costs. The policy requires the payment of heating, lighting and additional custodial services when buildings are used by profit-making organizations.

The Board also authorized a breakfast program to be administered under guidelines established by the Maryland State Department of Education and the federal assistance program.

The Board also took action to approve appointments of certificated personnel, accept resignations, and approve school bus drivers.

Mr. Harman will be representing the Garrett County Board of Education at the Annual Maryland Association of Boards of Education Convention to be held from October 2-1 at Columbia.

To Discuss Route 219 Improvement Monday, Oct. 7th

A public meeting has been scheduled by the State Highway Administration for discussion of the proposed improvements of U.S. route 219, from the National Freeway, just east of Grantsville, to the Pennsylvania state line.

The meeting will be conducted in the gymnasium of Grantsville School on Monday, October 7, at 7:30 p.m., according to Bernard M. Evans, state highway administrator.

Considerable mileage of the route, a north-south route, has been rebuilt and improved in Pennsylvania and this would connect the freeway with that highway. It would involve 2.5 miles of road. All interested persons are invited to express their views.

The planning team for the project will acquaint those in attendance with the proposal, describe the scope of work and solicit comments relative to the preliminary study phase of the improvement.

Comments and recommendations will be noted and recorded. Written comments may be submitted to Robert J. Hajzyk, director, office of planning and preliminary engineering, State Highway administration, 300 West Preston street, in Baltimore.

The present route 219 joins route 40, at Chestnut Ridge, just east of Grantsville. Motorists using the highway have to drive on U.S. route 40 to Keyser Ridge and then continue on 219 south.

What is Ready Reserve?

Q What is Ready Reserve?

A Ready Reserve is a line of credit extended to checking account customers who would like to have an additional supply of cash. In some cases, that line of credit can be as high as $5,000 depending on the amount you wish to have, and the amount you qualify for.

Q How do I use my Ready Reserve?

A All you have to do is tell us how much of your reserve you would like to use and then write a check. For example, suppose your line of credit is $1,000 and you want to buy an appliance that costs $400 — but you only have $100 in your checking account. To buy that appliance without altering the balance in your checking account, you simply mail or bring into GNB a deposit order and ticket that tells us to transfer $400 of your reserve into your checking account. Then you can write a check for the cost of the appliance. The money you use becomes a low-cost loan repayable in convenient monthly payments. Your reserve is reduced to $600 . . and the balance in your checking account remains $100. It's that easy.

Q Since this new service is a type of loan, do I have to get approval each time I wish to use my Ready Reserve?

A No. As long as you don't exceed your line of credit, the only approval you need is your own. The loan is made the moment we receive your deposit order and deposit ticket.

Q When I get a home improvement loan, I have to spend the money I borrow on home improvements. Is this true of Ready Reserve?

A The money you borrow from your reserve can be used for whatever you wish to use it for — appliances, home improvements, vacations, extra cash. In fact, the bank never has to know how you spend the money.

Q What does Ready Reserve cost?

A Not a cent if you don't use your reserve. But each month you will receive a statement letting you know that your reserve is ready to use. You pay only for the amount you use and for the time you use it.

Q How can I open my Ready Reserve Account?

A Just by visiting the GNB branch office in your community . . and speaking with a member of the Installment Loan Department. You'll find that our bankers understand your banking needs, and have everything it takes to help you.

Mathias Attends Secret Meeting!!

Senator Charles McC. Mathias, Jr. was one of many very important men who attended the secret meeting of the Bilderbergers in late April, 74 at Megeve, France.

Named after the site of their first meeting in 1954 at the Hotel de Bilderberg in Oosterbeek, Holland, the Bilderbergers have gathered on both sides of the Atlantic — always at very plush resorts.

At least once a year, Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands hosts this special meeting, and the leaders of finance, government, education, business, and labor — from all over "the Atlantic Community" — rush to participate.

The meetings usually last three days, but REPORTERS ARE EXCLUDED. A pall of secrecy surrounds the proceedings and the occasional official press release attempts to paint a picture of a friendly group of men gathering for some harmless discussions.

Prince Bernhard is one of the leading advocates of world government. Often complaining that the establishment of a formal world empire is hindered by "national selfishness, putting internal problems first," the Prince obviously does not summon many of the world's most powerful men in order to sing the praises of national sovereignty. Even more indicative of the "world government" flavor of these meetings is the known internationalist attitude of the participants.

American Bilderbergers, besides the Rockefellers, include such powerful individuals as J. W. Fulbright, Henry Kissinger, Robert McNamara, Henry Ford II, George Ball, H. J. Heinz, and Gerald Ford. In fact, Bernhard's invitation list reads like a WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA. Harold Wilson, Pierre Trudeau, Willi Brandt, and political figures from all over Europe show up regularly.

Just prior to the 1971 Bilderberger conference at the Woodstock Inn in Vermont, Bernhard candidly admitted that their topic for discussion would be "a change in the world role of the U. S.". Americans have a right to know why Bilderbergers should decide such matters. Aren't such matters supposed to be the province of our elected representatives? Yet the world role of the U. S. certainly is changing and neither the U. S. nor the world is a better place for it.

Mathias has accumulated a cumulative score of 7% on the Conservative Index, published twice a year in the REVIEW OF THE NEWS since 1971. That means that "our" senator votes liberal on 93% of the important legislation before the Senate — hardly an appropriate track record for a "Conservative" Republican. YE SHALL KNOW THEM BY THEIR FRUITS.

Mr. Mathias, if any of the above facts are untrue, why don't you sue me for libel?

Where Your Tax Dollar Really Goes

When Washington politicians talk of cutting the Federal budget, they invariably aim the scalpel at the Defense Department. However, that's like operating on a benign wart while ignoring cancer in another part of the patient.

The cancer is the nation's social programs which have grown wildly in recent years and failed to give America much of a return on its investment. The Federal budget for the current fiscal year, which tops $300 billion for the first time, includes $100 billion for income security programs. That's more than double the amount spent on these programs in 1969.

Consider further: In 1968, President Johnson's last budget year, the government obligated $75.6 billion for defense and military assistance programs. The total requested by former President Nixon for this year is $92.6 billion, which, because of inflation, is actually a decrease from 1968.

In comparison, the amount spent by Federal, State and local governments for domestic social and economic programs in 1966 was $123 billion. The comparable amount in 1976 will be just over $400 billion. In other words, these programs during the last 10 years have been increasing at an average annual rate of 12.5 percent, more than twice as fast as the growth of the GNP, which provides the tax base to pay for them.

Can there be any doubt where the real impetus to inflationary government spending is originating?

What is even more disturbing about this ruinous trend is the uneasy feeling that too many of those hard-earned tax dollars are going to those who don't deserve them. The Secretary of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare earlier this year reported that four out of every ten families receiving funds from the nation's largest welfare program were found to be either ineligible or paid incorrectly. Secretary Caspar Weinberger said that "national scandal" alone is costing taxpayers more than $1 billion annually. How many similar scandals are buried in government files?

We are by nature a generous people. None of us would deny to the truly needy our helping hand if it were at all possible to extend it. But none of us wants to feed a welfare cheater.

Next time someone talks about where those tax dollars are being wasted, do us all a favor and set him straight.

—U.S. Press Association.

Former Resident Shot At Oxon Hill

A 61-year-old high school cafeteria manager from Oxon Hill, formerly of Garrett County, was shot in the leg Wednesday, September 11, when she refused to surrender her day's receipts to two youths armed with a gun.

According to a story in the Washington Star-News, Mrs. Virginia Shewbridge employed at the Potomac High School cafeteria, was alone in her office when a young man armed with a handgun walked in and demanded money. The other youth waited outside.

When Mrs. Shewbridge refused to hand over the money the youth threatened to shoot her and did so when she maintained "You're still not getting it." The gun was fired once with the bullet striking her in the thigh.

Mrs. Shewbridge said that people do not steal from each other in Garrett County, where she grew up, and she decided she was not going to encourage it in Prince Georges county.

Wet Weather Has Continued During The Past Week

The past week, like September so far, has been on the wet side. An inch of rain has fallen during that time with the only real rain free day being Monday. Temperatures have been slightly above normal due to mild daily lows.

There has been at least a trace of rain every day during the past week except Monday. There was, however, much sunshine Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, with nighttime sprinkles in between. A heavy thunder shower Thursday afternoon dropped almost .4 inch of rain in about a half hour. Another thunder shower late Friday evening deposited an additional .55 inch before the rain stopped early Saturday morning. Yesterday was overcast with a light mist around noontime. September, so far, has registered 2.77 inches of rain. This is only .51 inch below the normal for the entire month.

Daily highs averaged 73.9 degrees, just .3 degree below the normal. Daily lows, on the other hand, averaged 53.3 degrees or 5.5 degrees above the normal. High readings for the week were 79 degrees Thursday before the storm and on Friday. Sunday and yesterday the mercury remained below the 70-mark. Last Friday morning registered a mild 65 degrees but Sunday and Monday the mercury dipped to 46 degrees each morning.

Winds were light to moderate through Sunday. It was the cool breeze Sunday that kept the mercury down in spite of the sunshine.

Fall begins Monday when the Autumn equinox occurs at 5:59 a.m. DST. At this time the sun crosses the equator on its journey south and the days and nights are of equal length.

One Injured In Sunday Accident Blamed On Speed

Failing to reduce speed when rounding a curve was the apparent cause of an accident which injured the driver of a pick-up truck Sunday afternoon on the Oakland-Sang Run Road.

William Walter Fike, Jr., 22, Eighth street, Oakland, was treated and released from Garrett County Memorial Hospital following the accident.

Fike was driving north and was unable to negotiate a sharp right turn. The truck went off the left side of the road, turned over and came to rest on its roof.

Trooper G. A. Berkebile charged Fike with failing to reduce speed at the curve. Fike was taken to the hospital in a private auto.

Two other weekend accidents apparently caused no personal injury.

Wayne H. Durst, Grantsville, was driving north on Pennsylvania Avenue in Grantsville late last Saturday afternoon. He noticed a car driven by Wayne M. Livengood, Salisbury, Pa., and an unidentified ear stopped side by side. Durst came to a complete stop. At this time, Livengood pulled forward, spinning wheels, and collided with the Durst car.

Trooper Berkebile charged Livengood on two counts, not giving a motor vehicle passing in opposite direction sufficient space to pass and spinning wheels.

A rear-end collision occurred on U.S. Route 219 at Jasper Riley road late last Friday afternoon.

Albert M. Harvey, Mt. Lake Park, traveling south on Route 219, stopped to make a left turn. As he did his car was hit in the rear by a car following, driven by Bonnie J. Harsh, Aurora, W. Va., Tfc. Ronald Lewis charged Bonnie Harsh with failing to reduce speed to avoid a collision.

Local Teams Win In Youth League

The two Oakland entries in the Youth Football league were victorious Sunday in the second week of action.

The Oakland Raiders shut out the Terra Alta Dolphins 22 to 0 as Jim Simms, Dan Daniels and Dave Rebele each scored one touchdown. Rebele's touchdown came after he intercepted a pass and went three yards for the score. Jerry Watson booted two conversion kicks for four points to complete the Raiders scoring.

In the other afternoon contest the Oakland Jets used the running performance of Mike Polding to defeat the Friendsville Steelers 32 to 13. Bolding raced into the end zone four times with runs of 55, 21 and two yards. His fourth touchdown was a 65-yard run on an intercepted pass. Pat Gregg scored the other TD for the Jets, plunging over from the one-yard line.

For Friendsville Larry Edgar and Jeff Umble rambled into the end zone for their scores.

Next Sunday on the Southern field the Grantsville Colts will meet the Oakland Raiders and the Terra Alta Dolphins will battle the Oakland Jets. Kickoff time is 2:30 o'clock.

Thieves Could Have Good Meal With Stolen Items

If some of the thieves in the area get together soon, they have the beginnings of a very substantial meal between them.

Last Wednesday night, the Oakland Country Club was broken into and approximately $150 worth of money, food and drink was stolen, including filet mignon steaks, mussels, beer and whiskey, Slim Jims, pickles and olives.

Over the weekend, approximately 1,000 pounds of potatoes were stolen from Harvey Brothers farm on Beckman's Peninsula.

The potatoes, dug by hand, were reported stolen on Monday by Guy Harvey, one of the Harvey Brothers.

Members of the Oakland town police are investigating the country Club robbery, while the sheriff's department is handling the Harvey theft.

Local Woman Listed In Who's Who

Mrs. Martha Glotfelty, Mosser Road, Accident, was listed in the "World's Who's Who of Women," a book published this year in London, England.

Her biography and picture appear in the book, along with sixty eight hundred other women from every country in the world.

Two other publications previously published included her biography. In 1967, she was chosen as an "Outstanding Personality of the South."

In a preface of the book, the editor explained that those included in the book, both men and women, had been described as outstanding and distinguished and were so recognized and honored because of their past achievements, positions of responsibility held and contributions made to the American way of life.

In 1969, she was contacted by Kay, Sons and Daughters, Limited Publishers of Devon and London, England. Her biography and picture appeared in a book published that year, called "The Two Thousand Women of Achievement."

Again last year, she was asked for publication of her biography and picture in the latest book published in London, England.

Mrs. Glotfelty has been asked to submit her name for inclusion of the New York Social Register. She has also been invited to a world-wide gathering of these women chosen for the book at the Waldorf Astoria hotel in July 1975.

Beall Hi Downs Southern 13 To 2

With less than one minute remaining to play Beall High of Frostburg picked up a Ram fumble and raced 45 yeards for the TD to provide the needed insurance in the Mountaineer's 13 to 2 victory over Southern last Friday night at Frostburg.

On the opening Beall drive with Dave Devore and Jimmy Blake doing most of the running, the Mountaineers marched into the end zone in six plays. In the second period a Ram punt went dead on the Beall one yard line and on the second play from scrimmage for Beall Blake was trapped in the end zone for a 2-point safety.

The 7-2 margin favoring Beall stood until late in the final period as both squads failed to score in the third period.

Beall dominated the second half and moved inside the 10 yard line on three occasions but failed to score due to penalties and mistakes.

Outstanding defensively for the Rams were Dean Parsons, Steve Gibson and Tom Mattingly. Mattingly came up with the tackle on Blake which provided all the Ram scoring. Mattingly also was impressive offensively along with Kevin Liller, quarterback.

The Mountaineer defense also stopped a Ram threat just before the first half ended, holding Southern four plays inside the four yard line with the series ending on the one.

The Rams had 13 first downs compared to 7 for Beall. Southern completed 7 to 18 pass attempts while Beall completed 3 of 5. The Rams also had a slight edge in total offense, 210 to 208.

This Friday evening the Rams will meet the Bishop Walsh high team of Cumberland on the home gridiron at 8 o'clock.

McHenry Traffic Continues Decline Over Last Year

The traffic count at McHenry continues to show a decline over last year according to figures released by the State Highway Administration for the month of July.

Of the four check places, U. S. Route 219 at McHenry showed 2nd greatest decline with an 18.6 percent decrease. There were 180,364 vehicles counted this July compared to 221,550 in July last year.

The only other point showing a larger decrease was U.S. Route 40 at Clarysville due to the opening of the National Freeway beyond that point to Frostburg last October. State Route 36 through Lonaconing showed slight increase. Route 40 at Town Hill showed a slight decrease.

Some of the many members of Mt. Lodge 40, Fraternal Order of Police, who assisted with the cooking of hot dogs and hamburgers are shown as they lined up at the pit. Several of those more active in planning and coordinating the outing for retarded and crippled children were Larry Tracy, Bernard Chabot, (front, right), Donald Wade, Walker Grose, Joe Helmstetter, Sam Conrad, Dick Graham, Joe Stakem, and D. A. Tucker. Wives lent many helping hands with the cooking and clean-up chores at the outing.

Time to eat, and youngsters and grownups alike devoured the refreshments provided by Mountain Lodge 40, Fraternal Order of Police, at the annual outing planned for the retarded and crippled children of Garrett and Allegany counties. Nearly 100 children were present last Wednesday to enjoy the activities planned for them.

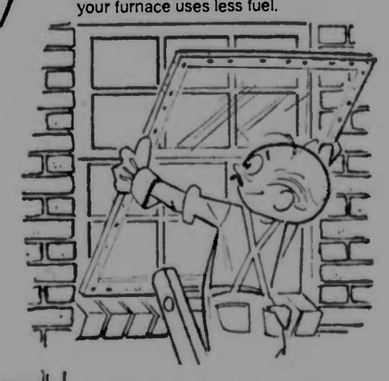
DON'T WAIT 'TIL WINTER TO WINTERIZE YOUR HOME

By following these simple tips, you'll use a lot less gas next winter. And as prices rise, it's especially important that we don't waste valuable natural gas.

Install adequate insulation. Simply laying a 6 inch thickness of insulation in the attic can mean significant savings in gas and money.

Storm windows and doors, or plastic sheeling can reduce heat loss as much as 10%. Your home stays warmer, your furnace uses less fuel.



If you have an old conversion burner, you'll be wise to replace it with a modern new gas furnace, designed to operate with less gas. As a present gas heating customer, you can install a new gas furnace and be sure of getting gas supplies in the future. A more efficient new gas furnace will give you more heat for less money. Plus it will save space in the basement. Why not call your dealer for advice, while the weather's nice?

Every opening and crack around windows and doors wastes gas and costs you money. Caulking and weather stripping can seal cracks and gaps, save dollars in fuel.

Gas is precious ▲ pure energy . . . use it wisely.

MARYLAND STATE POLICEMAN John E. Foley lends a hand to Southern Rescue Squad members Dan Gaither and Rex Teagarden in removing Mrs. Fred Fulk, Green Glade, from her car which hit a tree along Route 38 Tuesday. She sustained a fracture of the right arm. Both she and her husband, considerably shaken, were treated and released at Garrett Memorial hospital.

Denver, Colo., had two inches of snow in mid-September.

Jack Is Still There

Last week when Dick Travis, supervisor of physical education, announced the appointment of Mike Sines as athletic director at Northern High School, he never thought people would ask him "What's become of Jack Lear?" But that is what people did, so he wanted to announce this week that Jack Lear remains as an instructor at Northern High School and is taking more time for his jobs as head football coach and head wrestling coach at the school. He wanted to devote more time to those two sports.

Back To "Standard" Time

Most everyone, we are sure, will applaud the decision of Congress (by a vote of 383-16) to return the United States to Standard Time from November through February.

The year-round Daylight Saving Time was enacted by the Congress during the peak of last winter's energy and fuel shortage, on the alleged grounds that the emergency legislation would save up to two percent of the electrical energy consumed by the country. At the time, many people wondered why it should be thought that a light burning in the darkness of early morning would consume less energy than a light burning in the evening. Last spring, a study completed by the U.S. Department of Transportation confirmed the doubting Thomases; the amount of energy saved was less than ½ of one percent, rather than the expected two percent.

As a result of the study, the Department of Transportation recommended that the United States should observe Daylight Saving Time for eight months of the year, and Standard Time during the months when the mornings are darkest - from November through February. It was upon this recommendation that Congress acted.

So, it's good news that sleepy-eyed laborers will no longer be forced to drive to work in the pitch black of night, nor will school children be forced to wait for their buses in the darkness of early dawn.

That still won't take care of the millions of cows in the United States who are unable to tell the difference between Daylight Saving Time and Standard Time. But, Congress can't do everything.

—U.S. Press Association.

Aurora FFA Youth To Receive American Degree

Dale E. Mullenax, Horse Shoe Run has received approval for the American Farmer Degree, highest degree presented by the National FFA Organization. Dale was nominated for the degree by the West Virginia FFA Association. The nomination was approved at a recent meeting of the National FFA Board of Directors in Washington D.C. One of 612 FFA members nominated for the American Farmer Degree, Dale will receive the degree in a special ceremony on Thursday Oct. 17, pending final vote of approval of the 116 student delegates who represent FFA members in National Convention business sessions.

Dale is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mullenax, and is currently farming in partnership with his father. He earned the American Farmer Degree on the basis of an outstanding supervised farming program and leadership activities. His instructor is Mr. Wade Harsh, vocational agriculture instructor at Aurora High School.

The American Farmer Degree highly coveted award, presented to approximately one member in 1500, is presented only by the National FFA Organization to members who have demonstrated exceptional agricultural and leadership ability. Each American Farmer Degree recipient will be presented a gold key and certificate by the National FFA Organization. Recipients who attend the convention will also be presented a check from the National FFA Foundation to help pay their travel expenses.

To qualify for the American Farmer Degree, FFA members must have advanced through a system of degrees unique to the FFA organization. FFA members begun as Greenhands and after one year of membership, may be advanced by the local chapter to the degree of "Chapter Farmer". The third degree, that of "State Farmer", is presented by the State FFA Organization and is presented to two percent of the State's FFA membership in any one year. Only students who have earned the State Farmer Degree are eligible for the American Farmer Degree.

The convention is conducted entirely by student members, six National FFA Officers take charge of all business sessions.

In addition to the American Farmer Degree, many other FFA awards are presented during the convention. Contests are held in dairy, livestock, poultry, meats, milk quality and dairy foods, agricultural mechanics, horticulture, and public speaking.

Wagner-Sisler Vows Exchanged

Zion Lutheran church in Accident was the setting for the wedding of Miss Joy Brook Sisler to David Lynn Wagner on Sunday, September 1. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Sisler, Accident. The groom is the son of James and Alice Wagner, of Mellenry.

Rev. Frederick S. Illick, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony. Organist was Mrs. Marilyn Illick and she accompanied the vocalist, Mrs. Lucile Sines.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of Chantilace, styled in a bontfant silhouette. The basque bodice featured a sabrina neckline of sequined and pearled scalloped lace and victorian sleeves. Deep tiers of lace cascaded down from the skirt sides sweeping to a Godet train. A camelot hat of Chantilace held a double mantilla of French illusion edged with matching lace. She carried a multi-mini bonquet of trailing nosegays of assorted colors of baby's breath, roses, daisies, pompons and feather carnations.

Mrs. Debi King was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Carla Thomas, Mrs. Connie Wagner, and Miss Bobbi Frazee. Misses Joy Illick and Shawna Sines were flower girls.

Bill Wagner was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Charles Thomas, Ronald Wagner and Sam Opel. Ronald and Jamie Sisler seated the guests and Timmy Illick was ring bearer.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Friendsville fire hall. Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. Julia Sines and Mrs. Bernadine Friend. Serving punch and coffee were Mrs. Verna Schroyer and Mrs. Mary Friend. Miss Helen Friend registered guests.

For a trip to Sea World in Aurora, Ohio, the bride wore an orange pant suit with white accessories.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Northern High school. The bride is employed by Kolb's Country store, and the groom is employed by Wagner Trucking, Inc., Mellenry.

A surprise bridal shower was given for the bride by her sister, Mrs. Carla Thomas.

Surprise Dinner Given

Amy and George are going together.

Don't ask George if he's courting Amy. He wouldn't know what you're talking about. Nobody courts any more. They go together.

And there are significant differences. A couple of kids going together do not necessarily have marriage as their objective. They just may have found that afternoons like this one are more delightful when you're with someone you like.

The vital prerequisite for going together is to have a sense of values, a set of standards, that will help you make and keep this a wholesome relationship. Religious education, the moral and spiritual principles fostered by our churches—these are the keys to meaningful relationships throughout life.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

TO CHOOSE AGAIN

Lesson for September 22, 1974

Background Scripture: Joshua 24
Devotional Reading: Deuteronomy 5:1-6.

What, you may wonder, is the need for another covenant at Shechem (Joshua 24), when the people of Israel have already made several covenants with the Lord. First God made the covenant with Abraham, then to Isaac, then to Jacob, then with Moses. Why should Joshua have to take the people through all this again?

Rev. Althouse

The answer is not that God did not keep his promise or that he had cancelled the covenant. In fact, at Shechem, a frequent gathering place for the Israelites in the period during and following the conquest of the Promised Land under Joshua, they were reminded of God's faithfulness in performing his part of the agreement. He had fulfilled his promises to Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Moses and Aaron. As he had promised, he brought them out of the wilderness of Sinai and Negev and brought them into the Promised Land. One by one God has kept his promises.

"Now Therefore . . ."

The reason for a new covenant or the re-establishment of the old one was to be found, not in what God had done, but in what the people of Israel had done. They had not renounced their faith in him, they had not overtly refused to obey him. Yet, their failure, though more subtle, was no less damaging than if they had.

The key to their failure is found in these key words by Joshua: ". . . serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness" (Joshua 24:14). They were still going through the motions of serving the Lord, but they were really quite insincere, for Joshua goes on to specify: ". . . put away the gods which your fathers served beyond the River, and in Egypt, and serve the Lord" (24:14). Their problem is that they are trying to serve God plus other deities. They have not discarded their religion, but they have watered it down.

Make Your Choice

Joshua knows that a people cannot serve God if, at the same time, they try to serve others. The ways of the Lord are constantly in conflict with the religions practices of other gods. A man trying to serve two gods at the same time is a divided man, just as a nation trying to serve several gods is a divided nation. If a man's life is to be whole, he can serve only one God and if a nation is to be unified it must serve one God alone. Thus, Joshua challenges the people of Israel to make their choice: ". . . choose this day whom you will serve" (24:15).

From man's perspective, one covenant is never enough, for, having made them, we drift away from our promises, we water-down our commitments, and from time to time we need to make them anew. Though God faithfully keeps his side of the covenant, we do not. Yet, instead of cancelling his promises, God keeps the covenant open and gives us the opportunity to choose again.

WHO IS LOOKING OVER OUR SHOULDER?

An integral part of your pharmacy service is involved with checking, double-checking and then checking once more to be absolutely positive. Sure, it takes much extra time to do this on every prescription but when it comes to dispensing a medicine there is no way we can take a chance that something may be wrong.

Other checks and balances are involved in the procedure as well. Storage requirements for certain types of medicines must be reviewed periodically, dating and expiration dates must be watched. And, of course there are government regulations that must be complied with and these are often checked by inspectors.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

I have planned to write your office for some time. I am recovering from operations and have lots of time.

As you can tell by the letterhead I am a musician in Columbus, Ohio. I started playing drum for children to march in school at recess which was my favorite part of school. Later I played in the Oakland band and we would play concerts in front of the court house and also parade for special events. I guess I am the only one left out of the band that is still in music.

My dad was superintendent of Northern Natural Gas and was the man to bring gas to Oakland and Terra Alta. We first lived on the hill (High Street) and later dad built a house on Pennington Street. I was back to Oakland about 12 years ago and got to see lots of old friends. If you wish I can send you a list of members of the Oakland band at that time. I would like to have a copy of your paper and look for someone or some events I might recognize.

Dear Editor:

If this letter seems to be a sort of round robin letter, there is more than one thing or matter I wish to touch upon.

The first matter is this, we have been asked to conserve several things, among them our natural resources such as timber. Let me say on this matter that I have seen enough timber wasted by the State Highway Administration in the building of this freeway which would have built many homes, or made a lot of paper products of which we are constantly reminded of are scarce and in short supply. Not only have we seen the waste of timber, but from an ecological standpoint we have seen the spoilage of beautiful scenery and countless acres of land taken out of use that could feed many people if properly utilized. With the fuel shortage, will these new highways pay for themselves?

Secondly, this may be a minor matter, but each week we see a waste of newsprint here in the Keyser Ridge section. The Washington Star-News has been sending two bundles of 50 copies each to be unloaded at the unused service station at Keyser Ridge each Saturday morning, by Greyhound Bus Lines.

These papers lay there from the time they are unloaded from the bus until such a time they are disposed of by the workers of the State Road Commission. Many times the bands are broken and a few papers taken from the bundle by people who read them, and the remainder of this bundle is left to blow over the landscape to mar its beauty, and endanger the lives of passing motorists if blown into windshield to obstruct vision. This I would classify littering roadsides along with cans, bottles elsewhere. When will such waste and danger end?

Last but not least, building of this new freeway the State Highway Administration has not taken into consideration the water pollution they can cause, and have caused and populace they inconvenience by improper means of drainage, damaging their sources of drinking water and endangering the health of the people living in the vicinity of the freeway.

If our local and state agencies are so ruthless, what can we expect of the populace living there?

I hope you will find space to print this letter in its entirety.

Sincerely,
Jacob J. Oester

Congressman Goodloe Byron

This regular column serves as another vehicle to keep in touch with all segments of my constituency. It is an open invitation for you to question me on issues, let me assist you with your problems, request information or comment on whatever topics you feel are worthwhile. Letters should be sent to me, U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. 20515. Since space is obviously limited, personal replies I shall make every effort to answer each person who contacts me.

The following questions were typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks:

Can you tell me the location of abandoned railroad rights-of way in western Maryland? We are thinking about developing a few of them into recreation trails for hiking.

A booklet entitled "Establishing Trails on Rights-of-Way" is available from the Superintendent of Documents and contains a state-by-state listing of abandoned railroad rights-of-way.

How do I, as a Maryland farmer, apply for Workman's Compensation?

You may write—State Accident Fund, State Office Building, Room 705, 301 West Preston Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21201. Or telephone 1-383-2300.

I receive a VA pension and would like to know if a person over age 72 has to file the annual income questionaire?

A recent law excludes pensioners 72 years of age and older who draw benefits during two consecutive years from filing annual income questionnaires. However, you still must report changes in income.

Where can I obtain Presidential Sports Award material?

Back To School With Breakfast

Breakfast is an important meal in any season, but it takes on added importance as the kids start back to school. They won't be around the house for mid-morning snacks and so the need to start the day correctly is even more critical. Start them off with a high quality breakfast.

It's hard to judge the quality of many foods you buy, but with the help of U. S. Department of Agriculture grades for key breakfast items you can create a high quality—a Grade A or even AA—breakfast.

Grades are a measure of quality. Products marked with an official U. S. Grade assure you that the food measures up to definite quality standards.

Not all foods have grade standards. But for a breakfast menu of frozen concentrated orange juice, eggs, and buttered toast you will have grades to help you choose.

In order to have products graded for quality a food producer, packer, or processor must meet strict requirements for cleanliness in his plant. When the grade is put on a product, it has specific meaning according to the characteristics of the product.

There are three USDA grades for eggs. The top grade is U. S. Grade AA. The next is U. S. Grade A. Although there is a U. S. Grade B, you won't usually find this in your stores. The two higher grades are best for poaching and frying. The white of higher grade eggs is thicker and the yolk stands higher.

When buying eggs, you will also want to consider size—extra large, large, medium, small. But remember, size does not indicate quality.

Butter also has three U. S. Grades. U. S. Grade AA is the best. It is made from fresh sweet cream and has a delicate sweet flavor, fine aroma and smooth creamy texture. The next highest grade, U. S. Grade A, is made from fresh cream, has a pleasing flavor and is nearly as good as the top grade. U. S. Grade B butter is generally made from selected sour cream and has a slightly acid flavor.

There are two grades for frozen concentrated orange juice. U. S. Grade A (or U. S. Fancy) frozen concentrated orange juice shows no coagulation and no material separation. When reconstituted, it possesses the appearance of fresh orange juice. It has a very good color and flavor and it is practically free from defects. U. S. Grade B (or U. S. Choice) frozen concentrated orange juice shows no coagulation but may show some separation. It also possesses the appearance of fresh orange juice. Although its color is not as good as Grade A juice, it still has good color and flavor and is reasonably free from defects.

If children won't eat a typical breakfast remember it is important that they eat something. A cheese or peanut butter sandwich, apple, peach, orange, tomato or a piece of pie or cake will be a big help. Make breakfast an attractive and interesting meal.

Persons interested in trying for one or more Presidential Sports Awards may obtain free log books and copies of the qualifying standards and procedure by writing to: Presidential Sports Award, P.O. Box 129, Radio City Station, New York, N.Y. 10019. Awards can be earned for regular practice in most any sport.

My husband was receiving black lung benefits until his death five months ago. I was told the payments would continue but they haven't. Can you look into the matter?

Upon receipt of your letter my office contacted the Social Security Administration and, as you are now aware, your black lung widow benefits have been approved. You will be receiving a five-month retroactive check and a regular monthly benefits check thereafter. Citizens experiencing similar difficulties receiving government benefits justly due them should feel free to contact my office for assistance.

Respondent

No. 6537 Equity
In The Circuit Court For Garrett County, Maryland

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

This is to give Notice that on the 14th day of August, 1974, a Bill of Complaint was filed in the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland, by the complainant against the respondent, whose last known address was 709 Aledo, Coral Gables, Florida. The Bill of Complaint alleges in substance that on the 20th day of November, 1965, she was married to the respondent, Kenneth Wayne Bittinger at Cove, Maryland, by a duly ordained minister; that she resided with the said respondent until on or about the 15th day of July, 1973, at which time the said Kenneth Wayne Bittinger deserted the said complainant while they were residing in Baltimore City, Maryland; that although the conduct of your oratrix towards her said husband has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Kenneth Wayne Bittinger, without just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted her, and has declared his intention to live with her no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for more than twelve months, is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties is beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation; that two children were born of the said marriage, namely: Kenneth Scott Bittinger, born January 25, 1967 and Kimberly Ann Bittinger, born September 3, 1969 and who reside with your oratrix, that the complainant is a resident of Garrett County, Maryland, and has resided in this County and State for more than one year prior to the filing of this Bill of Complaint, while the respondent is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and his last known address was 709 Aledo, Coral Gables, Florida.

The relief prayed in the Bill of Complaint is substantially as follows

(1) That your oratrix may be divorced A VINCULO MATRIMONII from the said Kenneth Wayne Bittinger.

(2) That your oratrix may have the custody and guardianship of the said infant children, namely: Kenneth Scott Bittinger and Kimberly Ann Bittinger.

Whereupon, it is ordered by the Circuit Court for Garrett County, this 14th day of September, 1974, that the Petitioner cause a copy of this Order to be inserted in a newspaper published in Garrett County, once a week in each of four successive weeks, before the 14th day of October, 1974, giving notice to the said non-resident defendant of the object and substance of the Bill of Complaint and warning him to show cause, if any there might be, on or before the 12th day of November, 1974, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

NOTICE OF

MAYOR AND TOWN COUNCIL OF OAKLAND, MARYLAND

$200,000 Town of Oakland Water System Bonds of 1974.

Sealed bids will be received by Mayor and Town Council of Oakland (the Town), in the offices of the Town in the City Hall, Oakland, Maryland until 12:00 o'clock Noon, E.D.T., on September 30, 1974, for the purchase of $200,000 Town of Oakland Water System Bonds of 1974, issued pursuant to the authority of a Resolution passed by the Town on September 16, 1974, in the denomination of $10,000, numbered consecutively from one upwards and maturing within a period of ten years, in the order of their consecutive numbers in serial annual installments of $20,000 (two bonds in each year).

The authority of the Town to pass such Resolution is set forth in Article 23A, Sections 31 to 39, both inclusive, of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1973 Rep. Vol., 1973 Cumm. Supp.) and Section 462 of Article 12 of the Public Local Laws of Maryland (Code of Public Local Laws of Garrett County, 1957 Ed., as amended).

The Bonds will be dated on the date of issue and interest will be payable thereon on the fifteenth day of April, 1975, and on the fifteenth days of April and October in each year thereafter until maturity. Both the principal of and interest on the Bonds will be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the time of payment. Principal will be paid at the office of The First National Bank of Oakland, Oakland, Maryland, to the registered owner upon presentation and surrender of the maturing Bonds. Interest will be paid by check mailed to the registered owner at his address as shown on the registration books of the Town.

Bidders are requested to specify in their bids the rate or rates of interest to be paid on the Bonds on which rate or rates their bids are based and submitted. Bidders may not specify more than one rate of interest to be borne by any single maturity of the Bonds but may name a different rate of interest for each maturity. Bidders may not bid less than par value, and no conditional bid shall be entertained. Each bid shall state the amount of money per $100 which the bidder will pay for the Bonds.

The Bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid provides the lowest interest cost to the Town, such cost to be determined by deducting the total amount of the premium bid, if any, from the aggregate amount of interest upon all of the Bonds until their respective maturities. If two or more responsible bidders have made bids, each of which represents the lowest interest cost to the Town, then such Bonds may be awarded in a ratable portion among such bidders with their consent, or the Town may, in its discretion, determine to which of said bidders the Bonds will be awarded.

The right is reserved to the Town to reject any or all bids.

Bids must be enclosed in a sealed envelope, addressed to Mayor and Town Council of Oakland, City Hall, Oakland, Maryland, and so marked on the outside as to indicate that it is a bid for the Bonds hereby offered. Each bid must be accompanied by a Certified, Treasurer's, Cashier's or Official Bank check on a responsible banking institution in the amount of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000.00), payable to the order of Mayor and Town Council of Oakland, to secure the Town against any loss which might result from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. No interest will be allowed on the amount of the deposit. Checks deposited by unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them when the Bonds are awarded to the successful bidder. The deposit of the successful bidder will be credited on account of the total amount payable for said Bonds.

The Bonds will be delivered at either Oakland, Maryland, or Baltimore, Maryland. Delivery elsewhere will be made at the expense of the purchaser.
